MEA: SUDAN SITUATION TENSE, SAFETY OF INDIANS PRIORITY

The Ministry of External Affairs said on Thursday that various options are being worked out to ensure the safety of Indians stranded in Sudan. Delhi is keeping a close watch on developments in the violence-hit country and will implement evacuation plans once there is adequate ceasefire window and access to safe locations to rescue around 3,000 Indian nationals, MEA spokesperson Arindam Bagchi said. No one killed 11 in Guj's Naroda village in 2002

Trial court acquits all 67 accused in the case

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

ALL 67 accused, including then BJP minister Maya Kodnani and former Bajrang Dal leader Babu Bajrangi, were on Thursday acquitted by a Special SIT court in the 2002 Naroda Gam riots case in Gujarat. The riots broke out a day after 58 Kar Sevaks on board Sabarmati Express died after their bogie was set afire in Godhra.

Twenty-one years after the horrific incident, special judge Shubhada Baxi in her verdict invalidated a journalist's sting operation and Kodnani's call details as evidence.

Of the total 86 accused, 18 died during the pendency of the trial, while one person was discharged earlier by the court, reducing the count to 67.

Defence lawyer Dinesh Vaghela said they were able to successfully establish that Kodnani was present at the Assembly and the Sola Civil Hospital and not at the riot site.

Union home minister Amit Shah had testified in court in 2017, saying, "I saw Mayaben in the state legislative Assembly and at Sola Civil Hospital on that day," informed Vaghela.

Kodnani was sentenced in a different Naroda Patiya riots case in 2012, in which 97 Muslims were killed, but was acquitted by the Gujarat High Court five years ago.

A disappointed prosecution counsel Shamshad Pathan said, "Our question remains: who burned 11 people alive in Naroda village? We were upset with the government; the SIT was constituted extremely late; and we are again dissatisfied with the special court's decision today." He said they will challenge the verdict in the Gujarat High Court.

After the judgment, a large number of people outside the court raised slogans of Jai Shri Ram. Maya Kodnani told the local media, "truth has won."

The Supreme Court had on August 26, 2008 appointed a Special Inquiry Team to conduct the investigations and the trial began in 2010. It examined 244 witnesses under the sequential presidency of six judges.

J&K TERROR ATTACK ON ARMY TRUCK KILLS FIVE JAWANS

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

WITH barely a month before the G-20 meetings in Srinagar, terrorists on Thursday opened fire and threw grenades at an Army truck in the border district of Poonch in Jammu and Kashmir, killing five soldiers and critically injuring another.

The vehicle caught fire and was completely damaged. The five soldiers belonged to the Rashtriya Rifles unit and were deployed for counter-insurgency operations in the area. They have been identified as Havaldar Mandeep Singh, L/Nk Debashish Baswal, L/Nk Kulwant Singh, Sepoy Harkrishan Singh and Sepoy Sewak Singh.

The attack happened around 3 pm when the truck was moving between Bhimber Gali and Poonch in Rajouri sector. Taking advantage of heavy rains and low visibility in the area, terrorists opened fire and lobbed grenades.

Immediately after the attack, an Army contingent, the state police and the CRPF rushed to the area and launched a combing and search operation.

"Operations are in progress to locate the attackers," officials said.

Initial reports had suggested that a lightning strike may have caused the Army vehicle to catch fire.

It is the first major terror attack on security forces in Jammu and Kashmir this year and comes ahead of the important G-20 Tourism Working Group meetings in Srinagar next month.

On January 1-2, militants had killed seven civilians of the minority community in twin attacks in Rajouri's Dangri village.

Bilawal to visit India for SCO meet in Goa

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

IN what could provide some diplomatic bilateral drama in New Delhi, Pakistan's foreign minister Bilawal Bhutto Zardari will visit India on May 4 to attend the Shanghai Corporation Organisation (SCO) meeting in Goa.

This will be the second in-person participation by Pakistan in an SCO meet hosted by India. The recently appointed Charge d'Affaires in New Delhi, Salman Sharif, had attended an SCO meeting in March.

"Bilawal Bhutto Zardari will lead the Pakistan delegation for the SCO foreign ministers' meet (May 4th and 5th) in Goa. The FM's participation in the meeting reflect Pakistan's continued commitment to SCO charter and processes and the importance that Pakistan accords to the region in its foreign policy priorities," said Pakistan's foreign office spokesperson Mumtaz Zahrah Baloch.

Court rejects plea to stay Rahul conviction

ERRONEOUS, SAYS CONG

"A most unfortunate and unsustainable legal decision has been upheld in an even more unsustainable and erroneous judgment of the Sessions Court," Congress leader Abhishek Manu Singhvi said

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

CONGRESS leader Rahul Gandhi on Thursday suffered a setback as he failed to get a judicial stay on his conviction in a 2019 criminal defamation case over his Modi surname slur.

Rahul was recently disqualified as a member of the Lok Sabha after a trial court in Surat found him guilty and sentenced him to two years in prison. A stay on his conviction would have nullified his disqualification.

A Surat sessions court, which was hearing his appeal, said Rahul "should have been more careful with his words that would have a large impact on people's minds". Additional Sessions Judge Robin Mogera found merit in former BJP minister Purnesh Modi suing Rahul for defamation, saying "such defamatory remarks would have certainly harmed his reputation and caused him pain and agony in society."

Judge Mogera said the Supreme Court had, in a number of pronouncements, held that the powers accorded under Section 389 (1) of the CrPC to suspend/stay the conviction "requires to be exercised with caution and circumspection", else it would seriously impact public perception.

The court also claimed that Rahul had "not made out any case to suspend the conviction recorded against him".

About imposing the maximum sentence of two years on Rahul, the court stated, "it appears from the record that all opportunities for cross-examining witnesses were accorded to the appellant and thus I do not agree with the contentions of... appellant being deprived a fair trial."

The Congress said it will challenge the order. "Let me assure you that the judgement will be challenged in accordance with law in the very near future," Congress leader Abhishek Manu Singhvi said.

BJP's national spokesperson Sambit Patra hailed the verdict, saying, "It proves the law is equal for everyone."

Karnataka HC rejects DKS plea against CBI probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE High Court of Karnataka on Thursday upheld the sanction granted by the state government to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) to probe the alleged corruption charges against KPCC president DK Shivakumar.

Justice K Natarajan passed the order while dismissing a petition filed by Shivakumar in 2020, questioning the permission given by the state government to the CBI to conduct a probe against him. The case involves inter-state investigation and huge benami transactions.

The state government gave sanction to the CBI on September 25, 2019, to probe the case under Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act as the assets of the accused are outside Karnataka.

The CBI contended that the accused has no right to choose or say which investigating agency should investigate him and consent under Section 6 of the Act does not require reasons to be passed while granting sanction.

DK Suresh too files papers for Kanakapura seat

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

KPCC president DK Shivakumar and his younger brother and MP DK Suresh appear to be more cautious now if Thursday's developments in the Congress party are taken into consideration.

After Shivakumar filed his nomination papers on Monday for the Kanakapura seat, Suresh filed his for the same seat on Thursday. While Shivakumar filed two sets of papers, Suresh submitted three sets. Revenue Minister R Ashoka is contesting as a BJP candidate from Kanakapura and Padmanabhanagar constituencies.

"Shivakumar's nomination papers are in order. But there seems to be a conspiracy to reject them. Hence, I too filed papers as a Congress candidate for the Kanakapura seat. Since election officers are from the government, they can do anything on instructions from their bosses. Hence, we have taken a precautionary measure," Suresh told reporters. "Wait and watch the further developments," he added. Earlier in the day, Suresh was in Channapatna where he accompanied Congress candidate Gangadhara, who filed his nomination papers. In a surprise move, Suresh rushed to Kanakapura within hours and filed his nomination papers. P4

AAP demands ECI probe into 'transport scam'

State govt spent a whopping Rs223 crore to ferry its officials since 2017

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AMID elections, there is always time to expose a scam and save people's money. That's what the Aam Aadmi Party believes.

AAP communications chief, Brijesh Kalappa, explained that about ₹223 crore had been spent by the government to transport senior government officials to their place of work and back over the last 74 months from 2017. However, more than 166 officials had complained they had never received the transport facility for about 6-7 months.

Some officials asked the accounts section in the government what happened to the money they were told had been allocated, but they complained they had not received transport. The accounts department asked them to prepare bills and submit it and some openly demanded a share from the finance section of the BBMP of what was allocated to them, he said. Kalappa demanded that the Election Commission conduct an investigation into the "illegality in the BBMP".

Addressing a press conference, Kalappa said, "As per a BBMP order, the BBMP provides vehicles to all the persons holding 166 posts from 2017-18. But of this, vehicles have not been distributed to 90 per cent of them. This plan is worth Rs.223 crore and where the money is being spent is a matter of investigation." When contacted by TNIE, BBMP PRO was unable to respond to the issue, and requested that the department concerned be contacted.

BBMP Chief Accounts Officer Vani Ningappa unavailable for comment.

'JOSHI, SANTHOSH IN RACE TO BE CM'

Dwelling on who will become the chief minister if BJP comes to power, Kalappa said, "HD Kumaraswamy had said that Pralhad Joshi may become the chief minister if BJP comes to power. Now, Jagadish Shettar has alleged that BL Santhosh is trying to become the CM. This shows that there will be a fight between Joshi and Santhosh. Five neighbouring constituencies of Bengaluru - Jayanagar, Basavanagudi, Chickpet, Rajajinagar and Chamarajpet have candidates of the same caste. This will have a big impact on the BJP." Sources said that BL Santhosh was instrumental in pitting his "Manasa putra", Mahesh Tenginkai in Hubballi against Shettar.

AAP candidate has two wives, affidavit viral

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR
@ Hosapete

AN affidavit of a 39-year-old AAP candidate from constituency number 90 in Vijayanagara has gone viral after he declared that he has two wives and they have five children. Shankar Dasar had mentioned the same when he had contested Gram Panchayat-level elections.

"I am married with two wives and both are siblings. They are twins named Lavanya and Pushpaavati and we have five children. We are living together. I am not sure whether my nomination will be accepted. I have done my duty by providing true information to ECI," said Dasar, a resident of Kurugodu taluk of Ballari district.

In politics, people are usually interested to know about the assets and income of leaders, and how much has it increased compared to last year.

Dasar's honesty about his marriage has seized the netizens. At any cost, he said he would not mislead the ECI about his marriage.

The district election officials said that the officials have to scrutinise the candidate's information in the affidavit. "The case will be checked as per the Hindu Marriage Act. Whether there has been any special reason behind marrying the siblings will be looked into. The higher officials are looking into the matter," the official added.

Congress, BJP locked in tough battle in Gundlupet

B K LAKSHMIKANTHA
@Mysuru

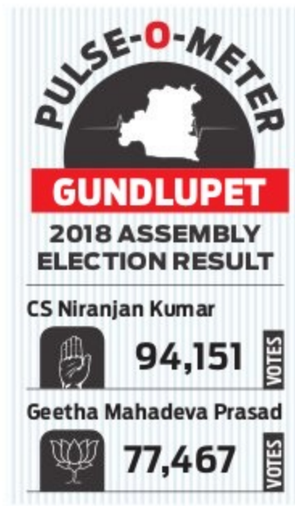
GUNDLUPET assembly constituency will witness a tough fight between BJP's sitting MLA CS Niranjan Kumar and debutant Congress candidate HM Ganesh Prasad, son of former minister HS Mahadeva Prasad.

In the 2018 assembly elections, Niranjan Kumar defeated Congress candidate Dr Geetha Mahadeva Prasad aka Mohan Kumari, wife of late minister HS Mahadeva Prasad, a prominent Lingayat leader, by 16,684 votes, and succeeded in opening the account of the saffron party in the constituency.

Niranjan's victory also helped the BJP expand its presence in the border district. The party's senior leader V Srinivas Prasad winning the Lok Sabha seat, the victory in town panchayat and APMC elections further strengthened the party in the border district.

After the death of Mahadeva Prasad in 2017 due to a heart attack, the Congress had given the ticket to his wife Geetha, a novice in politics, to contest against Niranjan. Geetha had managed to win the bypoll with sympathy votes. The party had also made her minister for sugar and small scale industries.

Niranjan, a staunch follower of former CM BS Yediyurappa, had contested on a BJP ticket in the 2008 assembly election and 2017 byelection, and on a KJP ticket in 2013, and was defeated in all the polls. His father CM Shivamallappa, a Congress leader, had contested as a Congress candidate in 1994 and Independent in 1999, and lost both elections. However, in 2018, the 'Modi' wave gave Niranjan the edge over Geetha.



Now, Geetha's son Ganesh Prasad is contesting as a Congress candidate against Niranjan. There is still a sizable number of supporters of HS Mahadeva Prasad in the segment, and Ganesh's service to the people during the Covid pandemic has made him a strong contender.

As both Niranjan Kumar and Ganesh belong to the Lingayat community, which is the second largest group in the constituency, it is the Dalit community, the largest in the segment, which will finally decide the fate of the candidates.

Meanwhile, the cold war between Niranjan Kumar and Mysuru-Chamarajanagar DCC Bank vice-president MP Sunil is worrying BJP state leaders, as Sunil is contesting as a rebel BJP candidate.

HC notice to CBI on Kulkarni's plea

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court issued a notice to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on two petitions filed by former minister and Congress leader Vinay R Kulkarni, seeking relaxation of bail conditions for his entry into Dharwad district.

Justice K Natarajan passed the order to issue notice, while hearing the petitions filed by Kulkarni with relation to the murder of Zilla Panchayat member Yogesh Goudar in 2016. Granting bail in two cases probed by the CBI, the special court imposed a condition that he shall not enter Dharwad district till further orders.

Kulkarni filed two applications before the special court, seeking relaxation of this condition. The court on Tuesday rejected the applications seeking permission to visit Dharwad district for 50 days, to enable him to file nomination and canvas for elections.

The special court observed that on verifying records, facts and circumstances, and the gravity of the alleged offence, the Supreme Court imposed the condition that he should not go to Dharwad district. The trial is yet to begin, and if the court permits him to go to Dharwad for 50 days by relaxing condition no. 3, the purpose of the trial would get frustrated, the court observed.

BJP will be back with a majority, says Bommai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Kalaburagi

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday exuded confidence that BJP will come to power with the majority after the Assembly elections, while addressing a massive rally during filing of nomination papers by BJP state unit vice-president Malikayya Guttedar in Afzalpur. Bommai said that people know about the contributions of Prime Minister Narendra Modi-led central government and the state government. The state government has launched several welfare measures and implemented them, he claimed, adding that BJP has fielded sufficient candidates belonging to the Lingayat community this time, which shows that the allegation of BJP sidelining the community is baseless.

Addressing mediapersons in Afzalpur, Bommai said that Modi will participate in election rallies in 20 places across the state, starting April 24. He might also participate in election campaigns in Kalaburagi, Bidar and Raichur of Kalyana Karnataka, he said.

Regarding Congress MP DK Suresh filing his nomination from Kanakapura, Bommai said that Karnataka Congress president DK Shivakumar is feeling apprehensive about his defeat in the elections from the constituency.

He alleged that it was Congress which had divided the Lingayat community in the earlier Assembly elections, and added that 70 candidates from the Lingayat community have been fielded by the saffron camp.

Ex-don Tanveer jumps into fray to help patron Baig

ENS @ Bengaluru

AFTER the BJP gave the Shivajinagar ticket to N Chandra, who has a criminal case against him, including attempt to murder, Tanveer Ahmed, former don from the area, Shivajinagar filed his nomination papers on Thursday as an independent.

Tanveer aims to garner maximum votes in the constituency to help his patron, former minister Roshan Baig, and defeat sitting MLA Rizwan Arshad. After filing his nomination, Ahmed said since he is from the area, he knows the problems and wants to address them. Supporters and close aides of Arshad said it would have been a cakewalk for Congress, and Arshad in particular, had Baig or his son Ruman Baig filed papers, as the party could have used the infamous IMA ponzi scam allegedly involving Baig against them.

Sources said Chandra, who was once groomed by Baig, would prefer the latter as Shivajinagar MLA, rather than Arshad. Chandra said, "I was with them (Baig, Tanveer) once and always ensured the Tamil-speaking population and Hindus voted for Congress, but the benefits were being given to one community, hence I joined BJP."

Denied ticket, former mayor joins Congress

Bengaluru: With BJP giving Govindaraja Nagar ticket to BBMP corporator Umesh Shetty, former Bengaluru mayor N Shanthakumari resigned from the primary membership of BJP and joined Congress in the presence of former CM Siddaramaiah and MLA M Krishnappa on Thursday. Shanthakumari told TNIE, "Since [Housing Minister] Somanna missed out on Govindaraja Nagar, I was hoping to get the ticket. Somanna had assured me about that. But, a junior leader was given the ticket. To ensure my followers and leaders are protected, I joined Congress," she said, adding that she was treated like former CM Jagadish Shettar, who was denied a ticket without an explanation.

Suits, cheques seized, case against KGF Babu

Bengaluru : Election Flying Squad officials have filed a criminal complaint against suspended Congress leader Yousuf Shariff alias KGF Babu under the Representation of Peoples Act with the High Grounds police station on Wednesday. The complaint was filed after thousands of branded suits, sarees and about 1,925 cheques were found at his Kaveriyappa Layout residence in Vasanthanagar. The articles are suspected to be election freebies as his wife Shaziya Tarannum is contesting as an independent from Chickpet Assembly seat. A case under Section 171E of the Representation of Peoples Act has been registered.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

21st April: Venus is linked to mystical, mysterious, glamorous Neptune after today. Of course, they are actually millions of miles apart but, to astrologers, this indicates a perfect day for poets, prophets and all who believe in a better world. On the other hand, people who are aiming for an efficient and highly-organised day, may run into a greater than expected dose of confusion.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
At work you should be in the saddle. Come to think of it, you should be at the controls at home as well. Few people realise that your success is based on your ability to exercise sensible day-to-day control, not just on sheer nerve. Today's one of those days to be businesslike, even in family affairs.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You should allow matters of an intensely personal nature to take their own course, as any mistimed intervention could introduce complications. Turn your attention to overseas contacts. But you'll also soon be looking inward, searching for the answers to life's many mysteries.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
With Mars currently pounding away through a deeply personal section of your solar chart, you may be under pressure to act, and act fast. If you resist, you'll begin to feel more uncomfortable, so accept what must be done and resolve to take the lead.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
It really is a moment for common sense. I don't think that anyone will have ideas to match yours when it comes to efficiency, organisation and practicality. Yet if family members are involved, you must take nothing, repeat nothing, for granted.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
As a rule, you should always jump in at the deep end and refuse to allow anyone to hold you back. You can expect radical initiatives at work, perhaps prompted by partners with unusual ideas. Also, do take quick steps to deal with any long-standing personal irritation - and try to find a peaceful path.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You do tend by nature to keep a stiff upper lip and pretend that nothing is wrong. However, it may be a material problem, perhaps a financial matter, possibly something to do with a lover or child, which eventually forces you to face up to simmering discontent.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
There will almost certainly be a confrontation over domestic matters, but not necessarily a painful one. Indeed, you may relish the prospect of clearing the air and breaking free with one almighty bound. But even if you do get your own way, don't relax - at least not just yet.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Few people realise that behind your occasionally devious tendencies lies a profound desire to create universal peace and harmony. This noble ambition will be a very prominent motivation over the next four or five weeks, though colleagues may continue to misunderstand your motives.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
I know that you want to live a life that is more fulfilling and complete, but today you'll be reminded of the fact that much depends on what you can afford. Yet, above all, it's a time to develop and expand your unique creative gifts and skills. Why don't you show the world what you're made of?

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
The celestial spotlight will be on you today. At work and at home others will be looking to you to take charge and sort things out. Family members are likely to expect you to seize the initiative, but you should only accept such responsibility if you're completely happy with it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Your stars are at once increasingly devious and exceptionally idealistic. So why don't you minimise the former tendency and maximise the latter? Also, do pursue any private spiritual interests, whatever people say. You see this is a time to broaden your horizons in all directions.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Do give more attention to business matters. You are attracted by the prospect of teaming up with others in profitable enterprises, but don't surrender control. Pin people down and give vague promises short shrift. And, remember, if a job is worth doing, you'll probably end up doing it yourself!

No docs at UPHC, Namma Clinic in Shivajinagar

Since six months, patients being redirected from clinic to nearby UPHC where lab technician, nurses offer consultation

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

DOCTORS are unavailable since six months at an Urban Primary Health Centre (UPHC) situated at Tasker Town in Shivajinagar constituency, said the staff.

Namma Clinic, situated a few metres away also has no doctor since last 20 days, said Renuka, the staff nurse at the clinic.

All patients who visit the clinic are redirected to the nearby UPHC where designated lab technician and staff nurses offer consultation and medicines for all basic ailments like diabetes, cold, cough or fever.

The lab technician, Mala JG said, with the unavailability of doctors at the UPHC, the staff are unaware of the patient's history, and hence end up prescribing basic medicines. On an average, 60-70 patients visit the Tasker Town UPHC daily.

The nearby Namma Clinic also sees an average footfall of 20 patients daily, which are currently being redirected to the UPHC, according to the staff.

They said they are not facing many issues with the added patient load and that its manageable. During Ramadan, the patient footfall has comparatively lessened, they added.

Specialized doctors, who visit the UPHC daily from 1pm - 4pm, also end up giving consultations to the patients visiting in those hours.

However, everyday a different specialist doctor visits the clinic, which was the provision of the wellness centre.

Health experts criticised the government's initiative of starting Namma Clinics in all wards of Karnataka due to such discrepancies being witnessed in both PHCs and Namma Clinics.

Instead they should have focussed on improving the facilities at the existing health centres as the staff at Namma Clinic has to depend on PHCs for getting vaccines or redirect patients in case of unavailability of doctors.

Want votes? Support same-sex marriage, political parties told

PURAN CHOUDHARY @ Bengaluru

WITH the ongoing hearing for legal recognition of same-sex marriages in the Supreme Court, Bengalureans urged the poll-bound Karnataka to reply in favour of the matter. The LGBTQI+ community opined that political parties that stand up in favour of the petitions will have the community's support.

"When Section 377 was decriminalised, I felt I was not a criminal anymore. I will support any party that openly supports gay marriage," Ankur Bhatnagar, a Bengaluru resident said. Ankur recalled an incident when his hospitalised partner had to sign consent documents for an operation as he was not allowed. "Before my partner, Deepak, got his anesthesia shot, I had to rush to get his signature. Despite living together, we have no proof of our relationship," he said.

He also mentioned that they wanted to adopt a girl child, and legalisation of same sex marriage will take them one step closer to realising that wish.

Shubha Chacko, who owns a pride cafe in Bengaluru said, "The government should allow the marriage of same sex individuals under the Special Marriage Act. During elections, political parties speak on a number of issues, why not on LGBTQ+ rights? We bought changes in our earlier practices such as legalising widow marriage and abolition of child marriages, then why not accept same sex marriage?"

B T Venkatesh, former Karnataka state public prosecutor and a supporter of the LGBTQI+ community opposed the Centre's view of 'urban and elitist concept'. He said "The government's views on the issue are patriarchal and against the spirit of the Constitution. As a practising lawyer, I have seen a large number of cases in which the community face problems because of not recognizing their marriage, especially with succession and inheritance." He also added that the government failed to understand that LGBTQI+ community members exist in every part of our society and not just in urban areas.

RAMAIAH HOLDS NATIONAL COMPETITION

A national-level project competition was organised by Ramaiah Institute of Technology for undergraduates in engineering and technology on April 20. It was held in two streams -- Stream A had architecture, biotechnology, civil, chemical, industrial engineering and management and mechanical and Stream B had branches of computer science, information science, cyber security, medical electronics, artificial intelligence and machine learning, data science, electronics, and instrumentation. In all, 206 projects were received from 21 states.

Track rides, buses on Namma BMTC app

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

AFTER missing multiple deadlines, Bengaluru Metropolitan Transport Corporation's (BMTC) much-awaited app that helps people to plan their journey is released. The bus corporation had planned to launch the app after the elections, but chose to release it immediately as they have already postponed it a lot. The app, which was earlier named 'Nimmbus', is newly released as 'Namma BMTC' and is available for both IOS and Android users. Commuters can now plan their journey and track nearly 4,000 BMTC buses in real-time.

After its failed launches in 2016 and 2019, BMTC is expected to have taken time to fix the technical glitches before launching it again. BMTC commuters were happy about the launch and believe it would improve the ridership.

A techie, Balachandar A, shared his view about the new app, "It doesn't show the option to select the route by which I wish to travel."

"If I wish to go to Majestic via Hebbal from Manyata, it's not giving any bus route. If I select boarding from Manyata to Majestic it shows buses going via Hennur Cross and Nagawara, which is not the shortest route. The app should show all the available bus routes, or give option to select routes. I can board the bus in 100 meters, but the app shows options that 1.5 km away," he explained.

Some users opine that the graphics could have been better while others are still gauging the usability of the app. Some complained that while purchasing tickets and passes, the app redirects users to the Tummoc app, which they suggest, could have incorporated in the same app to avoid using two apps for a single purpose.

BIHAR WOMAN JUMPS TO DEATH FROM 3RD FLOOR

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A 22-year-old woman from Bihar, who was working in a garment factory in Peenya Industrial area, was found dead under mysterious circumstances. The deceased, Reema Kumari, is suspected to have jumped off the third floor of the factory's hostel where she resided, on Tuesday between 9:30am and 10am. The previous night, she was found to be repeatedly going to the terrace before the security guard sent her back to her room.

On Thursday, the Garments Labour Union (GLU) engaged in a argument with the Peenya police as they delayed to take up the case even after two days of the incident. The police registered the case on Thursday after the family members came to the station.

The victim's parents suspect harassment at workplace pushed their daughter to take the extreme step. But based on technical evidence, the officials suspect that the woman's death could be personal.

On Tuesday morning, she left her hostel to go to the factory, but returned citing ill health, and then ended her life. The owner of a nearby provision store immediately shifted her to a private hospital in Dasarahalli, from where she was shifted to two other hospitals, and succumbed to injuries around 7.10 pm.

The victim's mobile phone has been sent to FSL to get more clarity on the possible reasons for the suicide.

No Shettar, Savadi: BJP defends pro-Lingayat image

Community leaders demand Lingayat as CM; saffron party counters Congress charges

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WITH the Congress hitting out at the BJP and terming the party "anti-Lingayat", the BJP is gearing up to project itself as pro-Lingayat. Community leaders held a meeting at former CM BS Yediyurappa's residence late Wednesday night, demanding that the party announce the next chief minister too from the Lingayat community.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday said they discussed how to respond to the falsehood by the Congress. "Leaders expressed their views about a Lingayat CM, and Union Minister Dharmendra Pradhan assured them he would speak about it to party leaders," he said.

Lingayats, whose population is close to 20 per cent in Karnataka, is the strongest community. After former CM Jagadish Shettar and former deputy CM Laxman Savadi quit the BJP to join the Congress, leaders of the grand old party are terming the BJP "anti Lingayat".

Speaking to reporters, Bommai recalled that the Congress unceremoniously removed Veerendra Patil as chief minister, and the statement was issued at the airport. "Congress leader M Rajashekara Murthy was also neglected. The party tried to divide the Lingayat religion. People will not pardon the party for doing it just for the vote bank politics. The Congress cheated Dalits, backward classes and Lingayats," he said.

Asked about the Lingayat leaders' demand, Bommai said no decision has been taken regarding the chief minister. "The meeting of Lingayat leaders was to take stock of the current political situation. A few leaders have given suggestions on how to respond to Congress allegations and also regarding a Lingayat CM. No decision has been taken on announcing a Lingayat CM," he added.

BJP sources said since the Congress is continuously trying to project the BJP as anti-Lingayat, candidates were told to stress on the reservation policy that has increased quota for Lingayats. They were also told to recall how the Congress, when Siddaramaiah was chief minister, attempted to divide the religion and get a separate Lingayat religion tag.

Meanwhile, national BJP leaders and Union ministers have been visiting Lingayat mutts whenever they are in Karnataka. BJP leaders and candidates were also told to slam the Congress on social media.

BJP Shikaripura candidate BY Vijayendra tweeted, "Congress tried to divide and reduce Veerashaiva-Lingayat unity for its vote bank politics. Can anyone deny that? Truth is BJP has always been accommodative of Lingayat community & its aspirations. Lingayats have got the maximum number of representation from BJP. Its a crude joke that Congress still has the audacity to talk about Lingayats."

MAKE A LINGAYAT THE CM, SOMANNA CHALLENGES CONG

MYSURU: Challenging the Congress, Housing Minister V Somanna, who is contesting from the Chamarajanagar and Varuna Assembly constituencies, told the Grand Old Party to announce that it would make a Lingayat the chief minister if voted to power. Speaking to reporters during his campaign at Shivapura village in Chamarajanagar, he said the Congress is blaming the BJP for not treating (former) Lingayat leaders of the party -- Jagadish Shettar and Lakshman Savadi -- properly, forcing them to quit and join the Congress. "They are making such statements with political interest, but the Lingayats will never believe them. If the Congress tries to blackmail Lingayats, it will be taught a lesson. It should stop its 'use and throw' technique. What happened to Veerendra Patil, Rajashekhar Murthy, and Nijalingappa," he questioned.

Responding to talks over announcing Somanna as the next chief minister, the Lingayat leader mentioned, "I feel happy to hear that and at the same time sad, as it can increase my enemy-base."

MLC POST LOSS

Vishwanath gives up idea to join Congress for now

ENS @ Bengaluru

FORMER minister and BJP MLC A H Vishwanath, who had arrived with much fanfare at the Congress office here to join the Grand Old Party in the run-up to the Assembly polls on Thursday, had to turn back owing to a legal hiccup.

As per advice from legal experts that he could lose his MLC post, with his term lasting until July 2026, due to the Anti-defection Act, Vishwanath did not join. He wanted to join the Congress keeping the MLC post, as his nomination was done by the Governor under literary quota. But since he had joined the BJP within six months after becoming the MLC, switching to another party is illegal, and attracts the Act, according to experts.

"Both CLP leader Siddaramaiah and KPCC chief D K Shivakumar had suggested to me, and I chose not to join the party. But I am independent to campaign for my choice of candidates. I am an MLC nominated by the Governor and I can support and criticise, but cannot join the party," Vishwanath said, clarifying that he will not resign from the MLC's post and will continue in it until his next move.

Meanwhile, former minister B Somashekar joined the Congress after quitting the BJP.

Cong picks Adinarayana for Mulbagal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Congress party, which sprung a surprise by replacing its candidate against Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai in Shiggaon, seems to have yielded to the pressure by its Kolar candidate Kothuru G Manjunath and changed its candidate for Mulbagal (SC) seat on Thursday.

The party replaced BC Muddugangadhar with Kothuru's aide Adinarayana, a former JDS leader.

On Wednesday Dr Muddugangadhar was among the four candidates declared by the party. He collected the 'B' Form at night and was all set to file his papers on Thursday morning.

But Kothuru, who is in the Siddaramaiah camp, gave jitters to the party, saying that he will not file papers for the Kolar seat if the ticket for Mulbagal is not given to Adinarayana. After hectic discussions, Adinarayana was declared as party candidate for Mulbagal.

This came as a setback for AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge and former union minister KH Muniyappa who were in favour of Dr Muddugangadhar, a former Youth Congress leader, who is also close to Kharge's son Priyank Kharge.

"Dr Muddugangadhar, a political novice, failed to take Kothur into confidence and that resulted in this chaos," a leader said.

Initially, Kothur said that he would not file papers for the Kolar seat if Mulbagal was not given to Adinarayana. The party leadership then asked Youth Congress leader Praveen Gowda to get ready to file his papers. But eventually, Kothur succeeded in his game plan.

Kothur and Adinarayana filed their papers for Kolar and Mulbagal seats, respectively.

Final list

The Congress party unveiled its final list of five candidates on Thursday. It announced Mohammed Shalam (Raichur City), BV Rajeev Gowda (Sidlaghatta), S Anand Kumar (CV Raman Nagar SC seat), HP Sridhar Gowda (Arakalgudu), and Inayat Ali (Mangaluru City North).

BJP in meltdown? It's a revolving door, say leaders

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

THE BJP, known to be a disciplined party, appears to be in meltdown after the quick departure of a number of strong leaders from the BJP – a 'never before' for the saffron party.

On Wednesday, MLC Ayanur Manjunath quit the BJP and joined the JDS to contest from Shivamogga. On Thursday, backward classes leader Adagur Vishwanath, who was Janata Dal state president and nominated MLC, was expected to quit the BJP and was seen at the Congress office, but refrained from quitting due to a technical glitch.

Adagur Vishwanath, who served as minister in the SM Krishna government, told TNIE that he was assured of a ministry, but the BJP went back on its word. ''Vishwanath, who went with expert legal advice, may not quit BJP just now. Another Backward Classes leader and former MLA R Shankar, who won from Ranebennur as an Independent and was made minister in the 14-month-old coalition government, was promised a ministry but later had to be content as MLC.

The list of those who have moved out of the BJP is long -- besides former DyCM Jagadish Shettar and former DyCM Laxman Savadi, there is JDU president B Somashekar and former minister Baburao Chinchansoor who joined the Congress, besides MLC Puttanna. "It is time to do something practical than hold a meeting to decide how to get back Lingayat support," some BJP leaders said.

BJP MLC Ravi Kumar, though, disagreed, "Some have left, but many have joined BJP." Among the recent entrants is AT Ramaswamy and K Kariyappa from Sindhanoor, and B V Nayak from Manvi.

There are also those who have not been given tickets but have continued in the BJP. "In many constituencies, we had more than half a dozen serious aspirants who stayed on though they didn't get the ticket. While the BJP is concerned about meltdown of the party, there is dissidence in more than 30 constituencies. With the exit of Yediyurappa, there is an absence of an 'elder' or father figure," Ravi Kumar said.

National BJP leaders start touring state

BENGALURU: With filing of nominations coming to an end on Thursday, BJP national leaders will start visiting Karnataka to take part in political rallies and events across the state, ahead of assembly polls in Karnataka. Among the national leaders, Union Home Minister Amit Shah will be in Karnataka for two days where he will take part in an event in Devanahalli as well as Bengaluru. He will also take part in a party meeting on Thursday evening. Union Health minister Mansukh Mandviya will be in Koppal and Ballari, while BJP National President JP Nadda will attend various events in Bidar.

CONG'S STAR CAMPAIGNER LIST FULL OF TAINTED LEADERS: BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

BJP Karnataka in-charge Arun Singh on Thursday hit out at the Congress over its list of star campaigners for the Assembly polls.

"Several tainted leaders have been included by the Congress in its team of star campaigners for the polls. These include those who are facing cases for raising anti-national slogans and those who made insulting comments against women. That is why the Congress is going to suffer a historic loss in the coming election," said Singh. On the other hand, he said the BJP in comparison had several great leaders, headed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, on its list of star campaigners.

Several tainted leaders have been included by the Congress in its team of star campaigners for the polls... That is why the Congress is going to suffer a historic loss in the coming election

Arun Singh, BJP Karnataka in-charge

Slamming Jagadish Shettar for switching over to the Congress from the BJP, Singh said a leader would obviously criticise the party that he had quit. He added that the party had given Shettar everything, besides making him the chief minister.

When asked for his comments on Shettar's statement that the state BJP leaders, mainly B L Santosh, were responsible for his exit, Singh said the latter was a tall leader of the BJP, who had dedicated himself to the party's growth. "Criticising Santosh is like committing a sin," he added.

Meanwhile, Singh, while not admitting whether Basavaraj Bommai is BJP's CM face going into the May 10 polls, instead went on to state that Bommai, who is the party's campaign committee head, had done a great job as the CM and always kept the image of a common man. Speaking to reporters in Belagavi on Thursday, Singh said the party would face the election under Bommai's leadership, and based on the development work carried out in the state during his tenure. BJP's performance should help it win the polls hands down, he said, stating that the infrastructure development across the state implemented by the BJP government would help the party register victory.

The party had chosen all its candidates in the state based on merit, and that 72 new faces had been fielded this time around, he said.

Shobha questions Imran's presence

BENGALURU: Union Minister of State for Agriculture, and State BJP Election Coordination Committee chairperson Shobha Karandlaje slammed the Congress for appointing Rajya Sabha member and Urdu poet Imran Pratapgarhi as a star campaigner for the polls. Shobha alleged that the Congress Rajya Sabha member from Maharashtra, Pratapgarhi, sang praises of gangster Atiq Ahmed. The Congress is using anti-social and anti-national elements in the elections, she added. Atiq, who had 102 cases including murder, rape, kidnapping, and other serious offenses registered against him, used to stay at Pratapgarhi's house, she alleged. Atiq and his brother, Ashraf, were shot dead outside a hospital in Prayagraj recently. Pratapgarhi, who was in Karnataka during the protests against Tipu Sultan Jayanti, had tried to instigate Muslims against Hindus, Shobha charged, further accusing Congress leader Siddaramaiah of being "anti-Hindu". Siddaramaiah had rubbished such allegations made by the BJP leaders. Congress spokesperson Prof Gourav Vallabh hit back at the BJP leader and asked her to explain to the people about an Uttar Pradesh minister's photograph with Atiq Ahmed.

Congress MP DK Suresh files his nomination in Bengaluru on Thursday | EXPRESS

'Suresh move is pre-planned'

This, according to political pundits, is a pre-planned move. The scrutiny of papers will take place on Friday. Both have filed papers with the party's 'B' Form as its official candidates.

According to an official, there are no chances of returning officers rejecting the papers on the grounds that a candidate is facing court cases and even if someone hides such information, it will not be a ground for rejection. As per Shivakumar's affidavit, he has 19 cases, including alleged money laundering and tax evasion, against him.

KPCC president DK Shivakumar's brother and MP DK Suresh has immovable assets worth Rs 298.47 crore and movable assets estimated at Rs 55.23 crore. He has liabilities of Rs 88.30 crore.

SIMHA QUESTIONS SIDDARAMAIAH OVER BRINGING GRANDSON DURING POLLS

MYSURU: Criticising Opposition leader Siddaramaiah for his claim that he will win the election from the Varuna constituency by a margin of one lakh votes, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha stated that the former CM is scared of facing the polls and also brought his 17-year-old grandson to offer puja in temples before filing his nomination. "Siddaramaiah should know that children aged below 18 should not take part in campaign activities. He brought his grandson to offer puja at Chamundeshwari temple and even announced that he will be his successor," he said. The two-time MP said Siddaramaiah has lost morality for bringing his son and grandson into politics and questioned his ideology and philosophy.

'CORRUPTION, INFLATION, INCUMBENCY GOING AGAINST RULING PARTY'

G SUBHASH CHANDRA @ Davangere

Haladi Srinivas Shetty -- Shivashankarappa is showing no signs of taking the backseat. He is also president of All India Veerashaiva-Lingayat Mahasabha. In an exclusive interview with TNIE, he spoke about the age factor, reservation and fate of the Congress in the elections.

AT 92, Dr Shamanur Shivashankarappa is the senior-most active politician contesting the State assembly elections 2023. Beating the heat, he's set off on the campaign trail across Davangere South assembly constituency.

Shivashankarappa's political journey, which began in 1994, has seen no break. He contested from Davangere City assembly constituency till 2004, and post delimitation in 2008, he is contesting for the sixth time from Davangere South. Though 'retirement' is the key word this election season -- from former CM BS Yediyurappa, former DyCM KS Eshwarappa, former minister SA Ravindranath to people of Davangere, be it during the Covid-19 pandemic, health service or financial support to poor students in the state and district. This has made the people bond with me. Another important reason is that the work of the public is done at any time, my doors are open for the public throughout the day.

Is the 2023 assembly election issue-driven?

Corruption charges, inflation and anti-incumbency are major issues going against the government. Along with this, guarantees given by the Congress, like 200 units of free power, 10kg of rice to BPL households, Rs 2000 to women of the family, unemployment allowance to diploma holders and graduates, will help the Congress. These schemes are meticulously planned and drafted by the think-tank of the party.

What are the prospects of the Congress?

A pro-Congress wave is blowing across the state, and Congress will form the government with an absolute majority.

Will the reservation announced by the government help BJP?

The reservation announced by the state government has no constitutional validity, and is just an election gimmick. Even the hike in reservation percentage for SCs and STs, creation of 2C and 2D sections don't benefit those communities as they were done in the run-up to elections.

There is a complaint that you don't visit the constituency regularly...

When work is done in a hassle-free manner, then how does this complaint arise? Moreover, I visit the constituency regularly and take stock of the situation. Along with this, strong grassroot level workers help me solve the problems of Davangere (South). BJP is making baseless allegations against me and my family.

Are there any problems in Davangere South?

As this is the old city, there are some problems and a majority of them are solved. The roads are narrow and cannot be widened. We are laying good roads within the limited possible opportunity.

There was an allegation that you and your son distributed gifts to voters much before elections were announced, and that they were seized.

These are baseless allegations made by BJP to tarnish our image, but people who know how we work and our services to society will vote for us. No doubt both of us will win with a good margin.

Is there any backlash from the minority community, which demanded the ticket from Davangere (South)?

I agree there is a sizable number of minority voters, but they are not sufficient to win the election. The time is not right for them to contest.

ECI RECOGNISES EPS AS GEN SECY OF AIADMK

Makes him the undisputed single leader of the party

T MURUGANANDHAM @ Chennai

THE Election Commission of India (EC) on Thursday recognised Edappadi K Palaniswami as the general secretary of the AIADMK by taking on record amended rules and regulations and changes in office-bearers of the party. The decision will be "subject to any further court order/direction", said a communication sent to EPS by the commission.

The EC's recognition is a big boost for EPS and a huge setback for O Panneerselvam as OPS and his supporters have so far been contending that as per EC records, OPS is the coordinator of the party. Some senior AIADMK functionaries also said that by validating the changes in the bylaws, the EC has also upheld the expulsion of OPS and his supporters from the party.

Minutes after the news broke out, AIADMK functionaries Pollachi V Jayaraman and Kadambur Raju said the EC's recognition of EPS is final and no other person can use the name of AIADMK or flag. Stating that henceforth OPS and VK Sasikala cannot use the AIADMK name or flag, they said legal action would be taken against those who misuse the party's name and flag.

However, Panruti S Ramachandran, adviser to the AIADMK faction led by OPS, downplayed the EC communication and said the commission has clearly said the decision to take on record changes in bylaws is subject to court order/direction.

Meanwhile, several AIADMK MLAs, including former ministers, presented bouquets to the leader of opposition, EPS, at his chamber in the secretariat and greeted him by raising slogans. Later, at the AIADMK headquarters, EPS was given a rousing reception by party workers when he came to chair a meeting of district secretaries.

Senior journalist GC Shekhar said it is a significant and comprehensive victory for Palaniswami. Now, EPS is as powerful as Jayalalithaa. EC recognising EPS is good news for AIADMK as it is out of confusion now. Shekhar also pointed out that EPS has got this victory when he is out of power. "When a person is in power, normally, there will be people around him. But even now, most of the office-bearers of the party and cadres are supporting him. Already, EPS has proved that VK Sasikala is not a threat to his position and TTV Dhinakaran is heading his own party," he said.

Shekhar said the political future of OPS is bleak and even if he launches his own party, it would be a tough task as he has to bank on just community votes. There were and there are many such political parties and they rarely make a mark, he said.

KSRTC nets record revenue of ₹3,349cr

AKNISREE KARTHIK @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Road Transport Corporation's (KSRTC) traffic revenue has broken all its previous records, earning Rs 3,349 crore in 2022. The highest traffic revenue was before the pandemic at Rs 3,182 crore in 2019. The bus corporation has reduced its loss percentage from Rs 157 crore in 2019 to Rs 93 crore in 2022.

KSRTC Managing director Anbu Kumar said the total traffic revenue was Rs 2,738 crore in 2016, Rs 2,975 crore in 2017, Rs 3,131 crore in 2018 and Rs 3,182 crore in 2019. "Due to Covid, the bus corporation's services were hit and its traffic revenue slumped to Rs 1,569 crore which again jumped to Rs 2,037 crore in 2021. In 2022-23, the revenue touched a new high with Rs 3,349 crore. We achieved it without any ticket fare revision and 10 per cent reduction in the fleet size due to phasing out of old vehicles," he explained.

> People in rural and remote areas like Madikeri, Hassan and other regions solely rely on our buses and we cannot look at the operations just from the profit point of view
> Anbu Kumar, KSRTC MD

Clarifying why the KSRTC was making losses despite improved traffic revenue, Kumar said, "Around 35 per cent of our schedules have less than 50 per cent load factor (number of seats filled), especially in rural areas and during non-peak hours. For us to reach the break-even point, the load factor should always be above 70 per cent."

"Even if there are just 5 or 10 passengers it is our obligation to serve them and we cannot cancel trips like private operators. People in rural and remote areas like Madikeri, Hassan and other regions solely rely on our buses and we cannot look at the operations just from the profit point of view. We offer passes to students at concessional rates. This is where the bus corporation is making losses," he added.

He said they are exploring all options to boost revenue and are rationalising the routes and exploring new destinations. They have cut down pilferage of revenue.

Man found dead, kin point finger at forest guard

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

EVEN as the death of a 49-year-old tribal in custody allegedly due to the torture by forest staff at Nagarahole Tiger Reserve is still fresh in the memory, another incident of death of a 30-year-old man has enraged the tribal activists and family members of the deceased.

Maasti, a resident of Hosahalli tribal hamlet belonging to Jenu Kuruba tribe, on Tuesday went for fishing. However, the family received information that he was found dead near the Balle Haadi. Getting caught in quicksand has been cited as the reason for the death of the youth.

However, the family members claimed foul play and said this was not a case of drowning, but the handiwork of a few forest staff who were frequently harassing him.

They said Mahesh, a forest guard, was harassing tribals who would go for fishing and there were heated arguments between them in the past.

On Tuesday, when Maasti went for fishing, villagers claimed that the forest guard had chased him to nab him and book him under a case. "When Maasti ran in fear, he was later caught up and might have been beaten and later staged it as a death due to drowning," said a family member of the deceased.

Meanwhile, Antharasanthe police confirmed that the incident was a case of unnatural death and are ascertaining more details.

Vets conduct episiotomy on jumbo

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

VETERINARIANS conducted an episiotomy on a 50-year-old cow elephant in Bannerghatta Biological Park on Thursday to save the live of the mother.

"We had to do the surgery, or else Suvarna would have died within a day or two. This is the first time it has been done in any zoo or elephant rescue centre in India. Normally, when a foetus dies, the uterus starts to decay and the animal also dies. It is only during postmortem that the cause is known. In this case, we were successful in the surgery," BBP veterinarian Umashankar told The New Indian Express.

Suvarna has so far given birth to nine calves. She is responding well to the treatment and is eating. She has been isolated from the herd and is under observation. After her water burst, she was in constant pain and was unable to give birth as the foetus was not in the right birth position.

Two minors gang-raped in Odisha

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bhwanipatna (Odisha)

TWO minor tribal girls were allegedly gang raped by a group of unidentified miscreants in Bengaon under Bijepur police limits in Kalahandi district of Odisha.

The sexual assault, which took place on April 16, came to the fore on Thursday after their parents lodged a written complaint with police demanding immediate arrest of the accused persons.

Police sources said, a group of five youths forcibly waylaid three minor girls when they were returning home after watching Tarini Yatra in their locality. While one of them managed to escape, two were taken to an isolated place and gang raped.

The victims initially hesitated to intimate parents due to shame and social stigma. When their parents came to know about it, they consulted their community members and lodged a complaint with the police.

Grade II constable of Bijepur police station Lingaraj Sethi said they have started an investigation to trace the accused persons. A case has been registered in this connection and the minor girls have been sent to Bhawanipatna government hospital for medical examination, he said.

The Kalahandi District Adivasi Sangh has condemned the heinous crime.

CUSTODIAL TORTURE CASE BECOMES A TEST FOR TN GOVT

The Ambasamudram custodial torture case involving an IPS officer has shaken the collective psyche in Tamil Nadu and put the government on the spot. Neither the custodial death of an Adivasi man depicted in the critically acclaimed movie Jai Bhim nor the brutal Thoothukudi custodial murder of the father-son duo have ended the continuing horror of custodial violence and torture in TN. What made the Ambasamudram case more disturbing was how the government handled it by announcing probe after probe. After the first victim narrated his horrifying account of the torture, it took over three weeks to register an FIR against the suspended assistant superintendent of police Balveer Singh and other police personnel allegedly involved in the crime. According to the victims, the ASP allegedly broke the teeth of several suspects using pliers and stones with the help of others. A series of probes since then, making victims repeatedly narrate their traumatic experiences, has sparked public outrage. Though an FIR was finally registered, no arrests have been made.

It all began on March 26, when some victims, including two minors, claimed that the cops removed their teeth and crushed the testicles of at least two of them at Ambasamudram police station on March 10. A recorded video they released went viral on social media. In the initial probe, the sub-collector refused to record some victims' statements but recorded that of a victim who had turned hostile. However, the victim, who had gone into hiding, blamed his U-turn on the police's arm-twisting. Strangely, the CCTV footage from one of the police stations was found missing.

Addressing the legislative assembly, the chief minister said he had ordered the suspension of Singh on March 29. On April 7, the state government ordered a high-level inquiry by the senior IAS officer P Amudha, which the victims initially boycotted. On April 19, the DGP transferred the custodial torture case to CB-CID. As the ASP's strange penchant for teeth made headlines, the Tamil Nadu IPS Officers Association issued a statement referring to the media coverage of Singh's alleged custodial torture as a media trial. The controversy could have been avoided if the government had dealt with it sternly on day one without leaving room for blame.

AI SYSTEM MUST RING IN TRAFFIC SENSE IN KERALA

Kerala now has an AI-powered traffic monitoring system. With the help of 726 cameras installed across the state, the motor vehicles department intends to enforce road discipline and punish traffic offenders. Initially, the system that went live on Thursday will look for offences like helmetless riding, triple riding, driving without seatbelts, speeding, illegal parking, signal jumping, and use of mobile phones while driving. Given how Kerala's roads are among the most congested in the country and traffic violations have become the norm, the new system would be helpful if employed properly and fairly.

However, there's an apprehension that it would become another tool in the hands of the authorities to collect fines. This fear is not without reason. Kerala's traffic woes could be blamed mainly on its inadequate road infrastructure—for decades, there has been no significant improvement in the road network. For example, there is no single stretch of road on which a vehicle can touch the maximum legal highway speed of 100 kmph. The widening of the NH-66, hurriedly being undertaken now, is a project that has been pending for nearly two decades.

The new system is being introduced without making infrastructural and other improvements needed to encourage motorists to follow the rules and ensure discipline. Roads are poorly designed, signages and markings aren't in place on most stretches, and the traffic control systems in cities and towns are neither scientific nor efficient. Their functioning often depends on the whims and fancies of the officers in charge. Besides, the AI system comes with many flaws. For example, it would lead to the compounding of fines for multiple detections of the same violation. And it would not allow even a couple with a child to travel on a two-wheeler without being fined for overloading.

While the new system can enforce traffic rules without having to stop vehicles and help improve compliance and reduce accidents, its implementation must be accompanied by significant improvements in roads, allied infrastructure and facilities. And the authorities must pay special attention to speeding and rash driving, especially by buses, private and state-owned KSRTC, and goods vehicles. In a state where on average, about 15 people die in accidents every day, and congested roads have turned travel into a hassle, a better traffic management system is necessary, but the focus should be on enforcement rather than fine collection and meeting targets.

QUICK TAKE

FILMS AND VIEWING LIMITS

The government plans to introduce new categories of film certification—UA 7, 13 and 16 years—to restrict children and early teens from accessing films with violence and sex. Is it in keeping with the times? For, changes based on quantitative reasons like the volume of violence are meaningless because its portrayal, context and justifications impact children more. Explicit or forced sex and abusive language impact cognitive behaviour irrespective of parental guidance. And many children already access all this and more on OTT platforms and smartphones right at home, where the danger of them imitating or being influenced is greater.

The worker is no longer another humble element which appears and recedes depending on the circumstances

THE COMING OF AGE OF THE BJP 'KARYAKARTA'

RADHIKA RAMASESHAN
Columnist and political commentator

SOUMYADIP SINHA

The "karyakarta" (worker) is a cogwheel in an intricate machine assembly interlacing the various components in the BJP's humongous order—from the elite to the middle and subordinate levels and importantly, the RSS. The BJP and its "karyakartas" are so interdependent that it's difficult to think of one without the other. The "karyakarta" can only be ignored at the leadership's peril.

Atal Bihari Vajpayee often made short shrift of his party workers—this was a factor that was overlooked, explaining the NDA's "shock" defeat in the 2004 Lok Sabha election. L K Advani extolled them (bar a schmaltzy moment in Karachi in 2005 when he went overboard praising Pakistan's founder Mohammed Ali Jinnah and paid a price with his political career), as did Pramod Mahajan and K N Govindacharya, who were key Advani team members. Among other past presidents, for Kushabhau Thakre, a quintessential RSS "pracharak", the "karyakarta" was the zenith of his functioning but he presided over the BJP during the Vajpayee regime and had little leeway in leveraging the worker's centrality. Nitin Gadkari was brought in during the bleakest spell the BJP experienced after it was voted out and, on his part, did little to inspire and galvanise the workforce.

Under Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the worker regained his primacy because Modi rules without having to look over his shoulder. The division of labour that characterised Vajpayee's spells in office undermined his ranking in the organisation that was seen as Advani's domain. No such partitioning of responsibilities exists now. Modi might have left the minutiae of "karyakarta" management, i.e., the HR department, and electioneering to Home Minister Amit Shah, but never allows his gaze to wander away from both areas. The worker is no longer another humble element in the BJP's architecture which appears and recedes depending on the circumstances. He or she is an ubiquitous entity who even calls the shots when required.

Those with a distant view of the BJP wonder why Modi speaks to the "karyakarta" on every conceivable opportunity, be it a milestone event, an election warm-up or a victory celebration, apart from the "Mann ki Baat" addresses. But the monthly monologue is intended as much for the "aam janta" as for the party workers.

Modi's latest speech to party workers was delivered April 6 on the party's 44th Foundation Day against a less-than-optimistic backdrop. The Opposition largely regrouped to demand a JPC probe into the Hindenburg Report on Gautam Adani's stock market manipulation; the second leg of Parliament's budget session was virtually paralysed (despite which the treasury benches pushed through the Finance and Appropriation bills).

Modi's was a chalk talk laced with the by-now familiar tropes: the Opposition's "badshahi" (imperial) mindset which, he alleged, scaled such a level of desperation that "They have openly started saying, Modi your grave will be dug", segueing into an attack on him with an "insult" to the poor, the Dalits, Adivasis and the backward castes, "protecting the lotus" (the BJP's election symbol), and reinforcing the commitment to liberate India from corruption, nepotism, and law and order challenges.

On March 2, after the BJP and its allies won the polls in Tripura, Meghalaya and Nagaland, Modi identified the triumph with himself. His detractors wanted him to "die" while people wished the opposite, he proclaimed. "Do not go Modi" was the chorus. However, the emergence and evolution of a personality cult in the BJP—which critics perceived as an anathema to democratic values—does not bother the "karyakarta", who increasingly makes no distinction between Modi the PM, Modi the leader, Modi the mascot, and the party. To him, these attributes flow seamlessly into a winning whole.

It was his address on the BJP's Foundation Day in 2022 which clearly encapsulated his expectation from the "karyakarta". He said, "Look from the global point of view or from the national point of view, the responsibility of BJP, the responsibility of every BJP worker is increasing continuously. That's why every BJP 'karyakarta' is a representative of the dreams of the country … of the resolve of the country." He embedded the worker in a global canvas.

Could this phenomenon materialise if Modi did not have an organic connect with the workforce? Ajay Singh, media advisor to President Droupadi Murmu, explains how Modi works in his book, The Architect of the New BJP: How Narendra Modi Transformed the Party.

"Till the '90s, the BJP's organisational expansion was seen as the party's outreach among people through its trained cadres. Modi singularly changed the definition of expansion by including infrastructure as a basic necessity for the growth of the party … Looking at the large pool of younger people from urban as well as rural parts of the country, he egged on party leaders to launch a drive to enlist them and assign them a larger purpose in life—to contribute to nation-building. All young members were regularly called to training sessions aimed at inculcating in them a sense of disciple and purpose." This "large pool" was drawn from the rural hinterland and consciously inducted young men and women from caste groupings which went generally unrepresented in the BJP's hierarchy as well as those of the other parties that were more targeted in their approach to social representation.

The outcome of the strategising and implementing was that at long last, the BJP raised its own army of soldiers that was largely independent of the RSS but schooled never to lose sight of the Sangh's ideology and worldview. The workforce, hidden from public viewing, is not an adjunct to the government and the government's social media and publicity outlets. The "karyakarta" exists in his own right.

However, the intent is not to paint a rosy picture of the BJP's organisation. Even under Modi, it failed the party in quite a few elections, Jharkhand and Himachal Pradesh being examples as well as Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and West Bengal. The workforce was nearly absent in Bengal, where the BJP is essentially made up of Congress and TMC "imports" who came in as individual leaders punching above their weight. In Delhi, once a BJP bastion, the party has still not gotten its act together because the workers remain unmotivated.

INDIA HAS TO WATCH OUT FOR ITS EASTERN BORDER

SUBIR BHAUMIK
Former BBC journalist and author on South Asian conflicts

With the resurgence of the Khalistan movement in the West and some indication of its revival in Punjab, India has some worries over its western neighbourhood. But Pakistan is in a vast economic crisis, and separatist/autonomist movements are intensifying in Balochistan. Once backed by the Deep State, the North-West Frontier Province and Islamist radicals have now become Frankensteins.

But if Pakistan's woes and some indication that nationalist elements within Afghanistan's Taliban are warming up to India is good news on our western front, Myanmar's descent into civil war and a resurgent Islamist coalition in Bangladesh backed by Western powers is bad on the east. With the coming to power of a Communist-Maoist coalition government in Nepal and growing Chinese pressure on Bhutan, all is not well in India's eastern neighbourhood.

In Myanmar, the Burmese army Tatmadaw is clearly out of depth in handling the insurgencies, and India has failed to take any proactive role in mediation, which it could have done given its links with all major stakeholders in the country. It has reposed its trust in the ASEAN's five-point consensus to break the ice, despite apparent failure to secure a breakthrough as the military junta completed two years in power following the February 2021 coup.

Several ASEAN countries either have a long tradition of military rule or are Chinese satellites that will not play outside Beijing-set parameters. Tatmadaw depends for its survival on China, which has bagged 16 mega infrastructure projects after the coup, many of which are uncomfortably close to the Indian border.

Delhi mandarins argue that rattling the Burmese military junta may push the generals further into China's embrace. This is why India abstained, with China and Russia, from a recent West-sponsored UN resolution on Myanmar. But the Burmese military is already firmly in China's grip—so Delhi's presumption is grossly misplaced.

It is time India opens dialogue with the exiled National Unity Government (NUG) and other powerful ethnic rebel armies like the Kachin Independence Organisation and the Arakan Army to create options and protect its crucial interests in border regions.

With Myanmar in severe turmoil, one can forget about India's "Look East" outreach into Southeast Asia, another declared priority of the Modi government. With daily fighting reported in at least 11 provinces and the Burmese army suffering huge casualties even at the hands of the poorly armed People's Defense Forces (an ethnic Burman insurgent group aligned with the NUG), all Indian connectivity projects are destined to be indefinitely delayed if not derailed completely. Even those finished cannot be commissioned.

PTI

Tatmadaw depends for its survival on China, which has bagged 16 infrastructure projects after the coup, many of which are close to the Indian border

India can send a Gandhi Peace Mission to Myanmar to engage all important stakeholders, including the army, and sell it as an exit strategy for the beleaguered generals, but South Block has decided on 'wait-and-watch'. An aspiring power is taken seriously when it acts, not when it promotes strategic inaction. If Modi can try playing a role in the Russia-Ukraine peace process, why not in Myanmar?

In Bangladesh, India will soon face a huge dilemma as the country heads for the next Parliament elections due in January 2024. Sheikh Hasina's Awami League, in power since January 2009, has taken relations with India into a 'Sonali Adhyay' (Golden Phase), but there is uncertainty over the next elections. The Islamist Opposition—led by the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) and Jamaat-e-Islami—wants to oust Hasina and hold the next elections under a caretaker system. This system existed in the country before 2009 but was revoked because the 2006–08 military-backed caretaker went beyond its mandate to organise a fair poll by trying a "Minus Two" formula—this sought the elimination of both Sheikh Hasina and Khaleda Zia from active politics—with the blessings of the US.

Now Washington is backing the Islamist Opposition and has weaponised the human rights issue in Bangladesh. Its sanctions against seven top security officials have demoralised the forces in their fight against Islamist radicalism.

The Islamist Opposition and their Western sponsors allege that Hasina has won the last two elections through massive electoral fraud and, therefore, a caretaker or national government with leading civil society personalities at the top should conduct the next polls under strong global supervision.

Hasina now faces strong anti-incumbency and ever-growing corruption charges, with some crony capitalists close to her government accused of huge money laundering and bank defaults, defrauding of banks, and kickbacks from mega-infrastructure projects. The Ukraine war has further complicated matters with rising energy and food import bills and an ever-ballooning price line that has upset common people.

India wants Hasina back for good reasons but is unsure how the US-driven regime change plans will play out. Hasina has not heeded Indian advice on many key appointments, and there is a feeling in Delhi that she is turning more to China—not only for development assistance but also for political support—to neutralise Western plans. Delhi mandarins feel, not without reason, that a pro-Chinese lobby, mostly traders doing business with China, has emerged in the Awami League, and they are slowly ousting the traditional pro-Indian Bengali middle-class politicians wedded to the 1971 legacy. India's challenge is to keep Hasina in power but also ensure the polls are globally acceptable and that the Awami League remains under control.

In Nepal, with the Prachanda-Oli government back in power and relations between China and Nepal getting warmer, as is evident in new projects with Chinese financing, the Nepalese angst at India's support for Madhesis and the repeated economic blockades launched by them has to be undone by some firm policy moves. Bhutan is under pressure from China to open up, and Beijing is bargaining over the border issues, which Delhi needs to watch out for.

Citizen protests

Apropos of Moderation is the key to tackle citizen protests (Apr 20). Political parties in Parliament disrupt proceedings citing freedom of expression. But when citizens protest on environmental issues, the authorities are impatient and threaten them. The number of PILs in the courts show that people seek the help of the judiciary since the executive is inimical to citizens' rights. As rightly said in the editorial, the country belongs to every citizen and they have the democratic right to protest.

Shettar's interview

In an exclusive interview with The New Indian Express, Jagadish Shettar has spoken about the Congress' secularism. Had he quit BJP when Babri Masjid was demolished, he would be a true secularist. Shettar's quitting is nothing but opportunistic politics. Saying that he was not allowed to speak in the executive meeting held every three months is a lame excuse.

Andhra's capitals

Apropos of Now, Jagan to shift state admin to Vizag in September (Apr 20). The AP government should wait until the SC decides on the issue of three capitals. His political decision of keeping three capitals is an injustice to the people of Amaravati, who gave their lands anticipating one capital. Heaven won't fall if he takes his decision after the SC's ruling on this very sentimental issue.

Collective responsibility

Since Independence, successive governments have failed to take any concrete measures to control population. With an eye on votes, no political party dared to speak about the need to control the population. The result is that the welfare programmes have not improved the lives of people.

House panel may meet over removal of history chapters

MPs object to exclusion of Mughal history from NCERT textbooks

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

A parliamentary standing committee on education is likely to hold a special meeting to discuss the row over the changes in the school textbooks introduced by the National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT) for the 2023-24 academic year.

After protests by Congress MP TN Prathapan and other Opposition MPs in a meeting on Thursday, chairman of the House panel Vivek Thakur said he would convene a separate meeting to discuss the concerns raised by the members.

It was the first meeting of the committee after the controversy broke out over deletions from history textbooks, such as that of an entire chapter on Mughal history, references to caste and inequality, mention of the 2002 Gujarat riots, Mahatma Gandhi's assassination by Nathuram Godse and references of Maulana Azad and J&K accession.

While Prathapan demanded to speak on the role of organizations like PPRC, a think tank associated with BJP, and Bharatiya Shikshan Mandal in textbook modification, and the need for the panel to intervene and repeal the changes, the chairman declined to deviate from the scheduled agenda. The agenda of the meeting was fixed for matters concerning foreign higher educational institutions, and hostel facilities for female students at Delhi University among others.

As more members, TMC MP Sushmita Dev, Akhilesh Prasad Singh, and others joined Prathapan in support, the chairman agreed to accept a letter written by Prathapan on the issues on record. While handing over the letter, Thakur also said that he will consider the demand for a special meeting on the issue.

In the letter, he said, "I remember the initial meetings of this same committee to discuss the textbook modification, especially history textbooks, of NCERT and several state syllabi. The recommendations made by the presenters invited to the committee deserved to be rejected at any cost. I along with some of my colleagues on the committee had registered our criticism in written and oral forms. Later many academicians and organizations like Indian History Council had rejected the proposals of PPRC and Bharatiya Shikshan Mandal pointing to the unacademic and unethical observations that they made in their proposals," he said

He went on to ask: "Why were PPRC and Bharatiya Shikshan Mandal invited to this committee? I had raised my concern over the logic of the invitation given to the PPRC and Bharatiya Shikshan Mandal to submit and present the proposal for textbook modification to the parliamentary standing committee on Education. PPRC is a PR organization focusing on election management and worked along with BJP in various state election campaigns"

He said the organization has no prior experience in academia, syllabus reformation, and textbook designing. "The presenters who came to this committee were not experts on history and related disciplines like historiography. Bharatiya Shikshan Mandal was known for propaganda-based educational visions and communal observation in the educational field."

He said inviting these two organizations to propose the textbook modification was a huge mistake. "I doubt it was part of a long-running conspiracy to distort history. All the recommendations made by these two organizations were deeply communal and politically motivated," it said.

On deletion of Mughal history, he said, "Learning Indian history without mentioning the Mughal Empire is foolishness. The inclusion of their contemporary rulers in various parts of the Indian subcontinent where the Mughals didn't rule is appreciable. But that shouldn't be convened by the exclusion of the Mughal Empire," said the letter.

In the letter, the MP also came down heavily on other deletions such as Gandhi, Maulana Azad, and others.

Same-sex relations not just physical, but emotional & stable ties, says CJI

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

BY decriminalising homosexuality in 2018, Supreme Court had not just "recognised same-sex relationships" between consenting adults of the same gender but also the fact that homosexual relations are not just physical but also "emotional and stable relations," a five-judge Constitution bench observed while hearing a batch of petitions seeking legal sanction for same-sex marriages on Thursday. CJI D Y Chandrachud said that after this verdict, our country "constitutionally" and "socially" had reached the intermediate stage which contemplated same-sex couples to be in stable marriage-like relationships and the next step was for redefining the "evolving notion of marriage."

Laying emphasis on the fact that society has evolved in 69 years, the bench said that Special Marriage Act (SMA) provided the framework for the concept of marriage which transcends and the framework was broad enough for assimilating later developments (same sex marriages.) Hinting towards redefining the evolving notion of marriage under SMA, the CJI clarified that it in the present case would not use the Constitution or its text for reading down or striking down SMA but expanding its meaning in the context of constitutional guarantees. Raising questions on the fundamentals of marriage under SMA, the CJI said that the court would not include "same sex marriages" within its ambit if it would result in "redoing the tapestry of the legislation (SMA)."

"Therefore after 1954 in the last 69 years, our law had really evolved to recognise the fact that when you decriminalised homosexuality you also realised that these are not one of the relationships but these are comprehensive stable relationships. Therefore by decriminalising homosexuality we have not just recognised treating relationships between consenting adults of the same gender but we have also recognised implicitly, therefore, the fact that people who are of the same sex would be in stable relationships," the CJI stated.

He said the object of the law (Special Marriage Act) in 1954 was to bring in its fold people who would be governed by matrimonial relationships apart from their personal law is capable of being broadly read according to you so as to take into account more stable relations of same-sex people. "Once we have crossed that bridge (decriminalising gay sex) then the next question is as to whether our statute can therefore recognise not just marriage like relationships but the relationship of marriage. This requires us to redefine perhaps the evolving notion of marriage," the CJI remarked, pursuant to Senior Advocate Abhishek Singhvi's submission that the underlying thrust of SMA was to not exclude marriage between two persons of the same gender.

Indicating that the bench would hear the pleas on a day-to-day basis akin to the Ayodhya case hearing, the CJI also termed the provision of notice of intended marriage under SMA as having the possibility of affecting couples belonging to the most vulnerable segments of society.

SC: Provide ration cards to workers signed up on e-Shram

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday directed states to grant ration cards to migrant or unorganized workers who do not have them but are registered on the centre's e-Shram portal, within three months.

Noting that out of 28.60 crore workers registered on the portal, only 20.63 crore are registered on ration card data, a bench of Justices MR Shah and CT Ravikumar said migrants/ unorganised labourers due to non registration may be deprived of benefit of the schemes and may be the benefit under the National Food Security Act (NFSA).

"Without the ration card a migrant/unorganized labourer or his family members may be deprived of the benefit of the schemes and may be the benefit under the National Food Security Act. Therefore, being a welfare state, it is the duty of the concerned State/UT to see that the remaining registrants on e-Shram, who are still not registered on ration card data and who are not issued the ration cards, they are issued ration cards and the exercise for issuance of ration cards is required to be expediated." Court's order came in its suo moto plea regarding the condition of migrants during CoVID.

Buddha's teachings relevant in most challenging times: PM at global meet

PM Narendra Modi greets a Buddhist monk during the inauguration of Global Buddhist Summit 2023 in New Delhi on Thursday | SHEKHAR YADAV

The noble teachings of Gautama Buddha have impacted countless people over centuries. In the past nine years India has continuously spread the values of Lord Buddha. We have worked with full dedication for his teachings to reach every nook and corner of the world

Narendra Modi, Prime Minister

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

LORD Buddha's teachings are the basis for solutions to the greatest challenges confronting the world, including war, economic instability, terrorism and climate change, said Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

"The noble teachings of Gautama Buddha have impacted countless people over centuries. In the past nine years India has continuously spread the values of Lord Buddha. We have worked with full dedication for his teachings to reach every nook and corner of the world," PM Modi said in Delhi on Thursday, addressing the first Global Buddhist Summit. The Summit is being attended by Buddhist spiritual leaders from across the world.

The power of crores of followers of Lord Buddha across the world, is filled with infinite energy, PM Modi said adding that the Buddha had provided a solution centuries ago for the war and unrest that the world is currently grappling with.

Meanwhile, 170 delegates from across 30 countries are taking part in this event that is jointly hosted by the culture ministry and the International Buddhist Confederation. However, China, which houses the largest Buddhist population in the world, has given this event a miss. Taiwan has two delegates attending as well as participants from Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, Japan, South Korea, Mexico, Vietnam and Sri Lanka. The theme of the summit is 'Responses to contemporary challenges: Philosophy to praxis'.

"It is universally accepted that today's era is the most challenging time of this century. Today two countries are at war for months and the world is going through economic instability. Threats such as terrorism and religious fanaticism are attacking the soul of humanity. A challenge like climate change is looming large over the existence of humanity," PM Modi said.

India is projecting itself as a propogater of Buddhism as Lord Buddha achieved enlightenment in India.

"There are millions who have faith in the Buddha and believe in the welfare of all living beings, and "this faith is the biggest strength of the earth," Prime Minister Modi said highlighting that the Buddha had preached about abandoning war, defeat and victory for eternal peace.

Bill seeking to abolish Guv's office moved

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

CPI MP Binoy Viswam on Thursday submitted a private-member bill for the abolishment of the Governor's office in states. Speaking at the press conference on the issue, he said that the Governor, noting being an elected representative of the people, ought to enjoy powers that interfere with the functioning of the democratically elected government in the state.

"It (abolishment of the office of Governor) is a long standing demand of the CPI. We have seen that the office of Governor has been used to topple governments led by parties other than the ruling party at the Centre. The BJP is using the Governor's office to further its political interests," Viswam told this newspaper.

The CPI leader further stated that the Governor's office is a colonial legacy and baggage prescribed by the Britishers, intended to suppress the legitimate democratic aspirations of the people of India.

The constitution must be amended to preserve the tenets of democracy and federalism that are enshrined in the constitution and to decolonize Indian polity, added Viswam.

Although the health ministry has said that the majority of cases are being reported from eight states -Kerala, Delhi, Maharashtra, Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, and Rajasthan, experts said other states are now also seeing a spike in cases.

While Kerala continues to report the highest number of cases and deaths, Maharashtra, where the new Covid sub-variant XBB.1.16, which is triggering the current surge in cases, was detected, and Delhi have been registering over 1000 cases.

According to the health ministry data, the daily positivity rate has climbed to 5.46%, while the weekly positivity rate stood at 5.32%. The number of active cases rose to 65,286.

Officials said 4, 42, 61,476 people have recovered from the infection with the current recovery rate touching 98.67%.

In view of the spike in Covid-19 cases across India, a high-level meeting was held by the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) on Wednesday to review the status of preparedness of health infrastructure and logistics, drugs availability and vaccination campaign in the country.

GREYING? BLAME IT ON STEM CELLS

Wondering why your hair is turning grey? Blame it on stem cells called melanocyte stem cells (McSCs) getting stuck and unable to deliver the protein pigment that is responsible for hair colour. Melanocyte stem cells are stem cells which are found alongside hair follicle stem cells (HFSCs) in the hair follicle bulge. These coordinate with HFSCs to regenerate pigmented hair follicles. NYU researchers found that normal hair growth is accompanied by the McSCs constantly moving between compartments of the hair follicles, where they are exposed to different levels of maturity-influencing protein signals.

ORGANIC-RICH LAKE SEDIMENT FOR AGRI RESTORES LAKES

Recycling phosphorus-rich lake sediments and channelizing them to agricultural purposes can positively impact crop production | EXPRESS

Researchers from University of Helsinki Faculty of Agriculture and Forestry have found that recycling phosphorus-rich lake sediments and channelizing them to agricultural purposes can positively impact crop production. Ideal targets for this are lakes that are suffering from eutrophication — a process that causes surplus nutrients in a lake environment leading to harmful algal bloom, death of fish and 'dead zones'. Therefore, recycling the phosphorus-rich sediments for agriculture also can help restore a dying lake suffering from eutrophication. The researchers zeroed in on a lake in Estonia for their experiment. In the lake sediments, they identified various essential nutrients including phosphorus. The targeted lake was used for sediment-based growing media to sustain grass biomass yield in a field environment, which yielded very good results due to the organic-rich matter in the sediments.

LONGER WEEKENDS, ANYONE? IT'S GOOD FOR HEALTH

Some companies across the world are trying out four-day-work-weeks. Now, researchers from University of South Australia have found a three-day weekend yielded more healthier activities among the participants on whom an experiment was tried out for the effects of a longer weekend. The researchers, over a 13-month-long experiment, found that the participants' movement patterns changed for the better when on longer weekends, with increased physical activity and decreased sedentary behaviour and stress levels observed across the board. The study used data from Annual rhythms in adults' lifestyle and health (ARIA) wherein 308 adults (with an average age of 40.4 years) wore fitness trackers 24 hours a day for 13 months. Minute-by-minute movement behaviour data were aggregated into daily totals to compare movement behaviours pre-holiday, during holiday and post-holiday to arrive at the conclusion of longer weekends being more beneficial for health. The researchers say that as the world adapts to a new normal, perhaps it is time to embrace a longer weekend to boost physical and mental health.

Raj paper leak case: Row over arrest of Gehlot's appointee

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

IN the high-profile paper leak case in the recruitment exam for senior teachers in Rajasthan, a political row has erupted between the ruling Congress and the BJP. After the arrest of Rajasthan Public Service Commission (RPSC) member Babulal Katara in the case two days ago, leader of Opposition Rajendra Rathore has severely criticized the government. State party chief Govind Singh Dotasara is responding from the Congress side.

Demanding a CBI inquiry, Rathore has alleged that Katara visited the Chief Minister's residence "every 15 days." He also questioned why and how a statistics officer like Babulal Katara was nominated by CM Ashok Gehlot on a constitutional body like RPSC where the Chief Minister himself nominates the members.

Earlier, in several tweets, Rathore targeted state Congress chief Govind Singh Dotasara, raising questions about RPSC's selection process where relatives of a senior Congress politician got 80 marks in the interview but less than 50 marks in the written exam. This allegation relates to the selection of some relatives of Dotasara in RPSC exams.

Dotasara responded by accusing Rathore of promoting his children to become contractors. He promised strict action against those who engage in any illegal activities. Dotasara also criticised Rathore's political career and argued that due to Rathore's flip-flops, he has never been able to become the CM or the state BJP chief despite winning seven times.

On Tuesday, the Special Operations Group of the Rajasthan Police arrested RPSC member Babulal Katara, the Commission's driver Gopal Singh, and Katara's nephew Vijay Katara. The SOG will present the three in court. The three are now in remand until April 23. Since the arrest of Sher Singh Meena, the main accused in the paper leak case, on April 6 from Odisha, the SOG kept a close watch on Katara.

PERKS FOR JUDGES

SC relief for 2 senior UP bureaucrats

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ NewDelhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday ordered the release of two Uttar Pradesh IAS officers (finance secretary SMA Rizvi and special secretary (finance) Sarayu Prasad Mishra) who were taken into custody pursuant to an Allahabad HC order due to their failure to provide facilities for retired judges.

A bench of CJI DY Chandrachud, while ordering for their release further stayed HC's order of issuing bailable warrants to state's chief secretary and additional chief secretary and posted plea for April 28.

"Till the next date of hearing, there will be stay of orders passed by the HC on April 4 and April 19. The officers shall be released forthwith," the bench said. Court's direction came pursuant to the plea being mentioned by ASG KM Nataraj before the bench. Terming the incident as "unfortunate", ASG urged the bench to direct for release of the two officers.

The state had approached SC against HCs April 4 and April 19 order. HC in its April 4 order had directed the state to implement a rule for providing facilities to retired judges. Failure of state to act on the order had resulted in April 19 order wherein, issuing contempt notices against the two officers had directed for their arrest.

Assam, Arunachal sign accord to settle border row

Resolve 50-yr-old dispute over 123 villages, 800km state boundary

Union Home Minister Amit Shah with Assam CM Himanta Biswa Sarma (Left) and Arunachal Pradesh CM Pema Khandu, in New Delhi, on Thursday | PTI

THE Assam and Arunachal Pradesh governments on Thursday signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) in the presence of Home Minister Amit Shah, to resolve their 50-year-old border dispute. The two governments have decided to resolve the dispute covering 123 villages and nearly 800 km of the interstate boundary.

The MoU was signed by Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma and his Arunachal counterpart Pema Khandu in New Delhi.

"We have witnessed a historic moment of the Northeast and India today. The two states have resolved a border dispute that has raged since 1972. I congratulate Chief Ministers Himanta Biswa Sarma, Pema Khandu, Kiren Rijiju and the people of Assam and Arunachal," Shah said.

The two states had formed regional committees which had visited the disputed sites, spoken with the locals and took them into confidence as they resolved the problem, Shah said. "We have today crossed an important milestone of (Prime Minister Narendra) Modiji's dream for a developed, peaceful and dispute-free Northeast," the Union home minister said.

The Assam CM said Shah had called him and Khandu to Delhi in September last year and asked them to resolve the border dispute. "The two of us met thrice. Subsequently, the regional committees were constituted by both states and they visited the villages. Today, we have solved almost the entire dispute," Sarma said, adding, "I am hopeful that we will also be able to resolve our problem with Mizoram and Nagaland."

"There has been a 67% decrease in violent incidents and 60% decrease in the deaths of security personnel. Deaths of civilians (in violence) also dropped by 83%," Shah said. Shah said Meghalaya and Tripura were today completely free from the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act (AFSPA).

"AFSPA has been lifted from 70% areas of Assam, 15 police station areas in six districts of Manipur and seven districts of Nagaland.

In Arunachal, it is enforced only in three districts," he said. Stating that Modi visited the Northeast more than 50 times since 2014 and gave importance to the region's language, culture and literature, Shah said the PM played a key role in popularising Bihu dance globally. He highlighted other agreements signed under the NDA such as the one for the resettlement of displaced Brus.

Speculation over reason for AAP's downfall

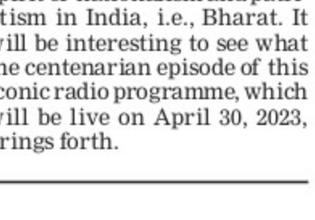
The entire "AAP Todo Project" is the result of an alliance between a prominent leader of the Gujarat BJP and a leader of the Surat Aam Aadmi Party. A party leader, who was earlier regarded as a close friend of the BJP member and later became a Municipal corporate candidate in the AAP, is being blamed in Surat political circles for breaking the AAP. On the condition of anonymity, a Surat leader said, "This BJP leader's special friend knew all AAP affairs. He was known to leak information on corporators who were dissatisfied with AAP.

Trouble mounts for former minister

Gujarat High Court On Thursday denied anticipatory bail to former Gujarat BJP minister Gajendra Singh Parmar. The High Court rules that 'bail cannot be granted considering the gravity of the crime (Parmar is facing a POCSO act charge). In the month of January 2023, former BJP minister and present BJP MLA of Prantij Assembly in North Gujarat Gajendra singh Parmar, along with two others, were booked under various sections of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (Pocso) Act for molestation of a minor girl. The incident occured in November, 2020.

Reshuffle in Gujarat Congress on cards?

Something is brewing in Gujarat Congress, according to sources. Following the party's humiliating setback in the assembly elections, on Sunday, a special meeting of the leaders was summoned. After that, Congress leaders gathered in a private hotel in Gandhinagar. It is significant that certain prominent leaders from all around Gujarat were invited to a meeting called by Congress Party Assembly Leader Amit Chavda. The meeting was attended by approximately 50 people, including former MPs, recent MLAs, and office holders. As a result, Gujarat Congress leaders are discussing the possibility of a reshuffle in the Gujarat.



'Pension for those put in prison during Emergency'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Guwahati

THE Assam government will give a monthly pension of ₹15,000 to 301 people who were jailed during the period of Emergency. The decision was made at a meeting of the cabinet on Wednesday evening that Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma chaired.

"Monthly pension of ₹15,000 will be given to Loktantra Senanis, who participated in the movement for restoration of democracy during the Emergency era," Sarma shared the highlights of the cabinet decisions through Twitter.

The government said more Loktantra Senanis would be included in the list after due diligence and approval of the CM. This pension shall also be extended to the widows and unmarried daughters of Loktantra Senanis, as the case may be, the government said.

It further said the decision had been made to honour the sacrifices of Loktantra Senanis and alleviate their "untold sufferings" that adversely affected the livelihood of their family members. "There was a systematic destruction of every institution," Sarma tweeted.

12 South African cheetahs shifted to 'acclimatisation enclosures' at Kuno Park

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

WHILE Namibian male cheetah Oban continues to explore tiger territory at Madhav National Park (MNP) in Shivpuri district, in the neighbouring Kuno National Park in Sheopur district, 12 South African cheetahs are now out in big enclosures – as preparatory exercise for their future release in the open jungles.

The 12 semi-adult and adult cheetahs — seven males and five females — who were flown to the KNP from South Africa on February 18, were shifted from their quarantine bomas (small enclosures) into the bigger enclosures over the last three days, official sources at KNP revealed on Thursday.

> The bigger enclosures can be defined as pre-release enclosure, where they will prepare themselves for hunting on their own, before they are out in the open jungles
> Senior MP forest department official

The 12 SA cheetahs who fed on buffalo meat during the nearly two-months quarantine period in the bomas have now been released into big enclosures, which are of variable sizes, spanning between 50 and 120 hectares.

Just like the Namibian cheetahs in the previous months, the 12 SA cheetahs will master the art of hunting the prey base, including Chital and Sambar deer, besides wild boars and Nilgais (blue cow) in the bigger enclosures.

"The bigger enclosures can best be defined as pre-release or acclimatization enclosure, where they will prepare themselves for hunting on their own, before they are out in the open jungles. Though no set period is determined about when these SA cheetahs will follow the Namibian cheetahs into the open jungles of KNP, the time period could range between one month to four months, depending on how well these big cats acclimatize before being released into the wild," a senior Madhya Pradesh forest department official told this daily.

Once out in the open jungles, the 12 South African cheetahs will not only hunt on their own, but also slowly learn to co-exist with co-predators, including leopards, hyenas, jackals and bears. Meanwhile, three Namibian cheetahs (all females) are yet to be released into the open jungles, where the four other Namibian cheetahs were released last month.

J&K POLL DELAY

Schedule for revision of rolls changed

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THERE is likely to be further delay in Assembly polls in Jammu and Kashmir as Election Commission of India has revised the second schedule of special summary revision of electoral rolls in the UT

The ECI has extended the date for filing claims and objections in connection with Special Summary Revision of Photo Electoral Rolls up to May 6.

According to a communiqué issued by the office of J&K Chief Electoral Officer, the eligible persons can now file their applications for inclusion, deletion and correction/shifting of their names in the electoral rolls on form number 6, 7 and 8 respectively as the case may be, upto May 6.

The disposal of claims and objections would be done by May 15. The special summary revision of photo exercise, which otherwise was to be concluded on May 10, would now be concluded on May 27.

This is the second revision of voter list in Jammu and Kashmir in less than one year after completion of delimitation exercise by a three-member Delimitation Commission headed by former Supreme Court judge Justice (retd) Ranjana Desai.

Won't pay ₹55L legal fee for battle over UP don's custody, says Punjab govt

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

MORE than two years after UP's gangster-turned-politician Mukhtar Ansari was dispatched from Punjab's Ropar jail to the Banda prison after a legal battle as then Congress-ruled Punjab opposed his transfer to UP, it has now emerged that he enjoyed VVIP facilities during his 27-month incarceration in Punjab.

Besides, the Bhagwnt Mann government has refused to pay up ₹55 lakh legal expenses incurred on account of representing its case in the Supreme Court, terming it a loot of public money. The facts about the "VVIP treatment" for Ansari are a part of the inquiry ordered by the AAP-led Punjab government under Additional DGP RN Dhoke, who recently submitted his report to Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann. The report focuses on the facilities which were extended to Ansari in the Ropar jail.

Linked to the Ansari episode was the controversy over the refusal of the then Congress government in Punjab to transfer the jailed politician to UP. The Punjab government had also hired a senior lawyer to represent it in the SC.

CM Mann has now returned the file refusing to pay legal expenses of ₹55 lakh. What's more is his assertion that he plans to recover the amount from former ministers who wanted to keep the UP don in the Punjab jail, forcing the state to hire expensive legal services.

Sources said the inquiry report has not established the allegation that Ansari's wife or family members stayed with him in jail. It has recommended that a case be registered under the Prevention of Corruption Act against some jail officials for allegedly accepting bribe from Ansari in exchange for facilities and a VVIP treatment.

Sources said that CM Mann has not cleared the file of fees to be paid to the lawyer who represented the state in this case in the apex court in 2021.

MANN KI BAAT: NATION BUILDING THROUGH JAN BHAGIDARI

JUSTICE K G BALAKRISHNAN
Former Chief Justice of India

INDIA, that is, Bharat, completed 75 years of its Independence on August 15, 2022. Prime Minister Narendra Modi gave our nation and its rich civilisation the vision for its Amrit Kaal – the next 25 years till the centenary of its freedom in 2047, a period of infinite possibilities and transformation.

Modi has ushered in a new era of growth and achievements for our country through his vision and diligence in creating this remarkable path forward for all our citizens. One initiative by the Prime Minister that has stood out of the many outstanding initiatives of his for the upliftment and better governance of our country is his programme, Mann Ki Baat. It is a unique radio programme incepted in 2014 through which the Prime Minister has established direct contact with those citizens who are hardest to reach and the most downtrodden in our society.

Mann Ki Baat is wonderful because it directly connects the listener and the Prime Minister. One feels he is addressing them directly as their well-wisher and guide on intellectual, spiritual and individual levels. The Prime Minister has established this practice of addressing the nation without fail. No matter what the challenge was before us as a nation, he has never relented in discharging his role as a leader of our country. This transformative radio programme, ushered in for significant social and cultural mass movements in the country, started in October 2014 and is reaching the milestone of 100 episodes on April 30, 2023.

The Prime Minister heralded Amrit Kaal by laying down Panch Pran, i.e., five pledges every citizen of Bharat must take to lay the unshakeable foundation of the future Bharat. Each of these pledges focuses on inspiring action and facilitating nation-building. The Pran include the goal of a developed Bharat, removing traces of the colonial mindset, celebrating our heritage, strengthening unity, and focusing on our duties.

In the last decade, Bharat has recorded spectacular growth in its various sectors with the Prime Minister's resolve to build an Atamnibhar Bharat. It is evident from the fact that during the unprecedented challenge of the Covid-19 pandemic, Bharat was able to produce indigenous vaccines for the benefit of its citizens and the world. During the pandemic, the Prime Minister urged Bharat on Mann ki Baat to become a self-reliant nation and a strong global economic force.

Bharat has resolved to excel in its civilisational goals, which include social stability, economic prosperity, cultural safeguard and evolution, which are contemporary with its roots. The Prime Minister has effectively conveyed and manifested the spirit of this resolve in the people of our country through his programme, Mann Ki Baat.

> THE PRIME MINISTER HERALDED AMRIT KAAL BY LAYING DOWN PANCH PRAN — FIVE PLEDGES EVERY CITIZEN OF BHARAT MUST TAKE TO LAY THE UNSHAKEABLE FOUNDATION OF THE FUTURE BHARAT. EACH OF THESE PLEDGES FOCUSES ON INSPIRING ACTION AND FACILITATING NATION-BUILDING.

Prime Minister Modi has continuously inspired citizens to become agents of change and contribute to national development. Mann Ki Baat has been a stellar platform for promoting Start-up India campaign, fuelling innovation and entrepreneurship among young people in India. On the largest scale, our country's digital revolution has been popularised through this medium. Mann ki Baat has been a bulwark in popularising all-around developments in the country. The programme is yet another tool for transforming the lives of our citizens, uniting them to contribute to the broader goal of a developed nation.

The Prime Minister recognises that our art, literature and culture are the pillars of structuring a new Bharat. He has taken the responsibility upon himself to inform the general public about the collective wealth of our society through Mann Ki Baat. He has also taken many initiatives to retrieve and rebuild our pillars of art, literature and cultural heritage.

Prime Minister Modi has shown his faith in the nation's ability to take on the role of a global leader. Through his initiatives, he promotes the concept of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam on the world stage. This has positively impacted citizens who feel proud and motivated to work towards the goal of Bharat becoming a Vishwa Guru.

While giving the clarion call for Amrit Kaal to the nation, the Prime Minister said that this is the right time to embark on a journey of achievements based on our talent, resources and strength. He added the call of Sabka Prayas to the mantra of Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas, invoking the people to contribute to the journey of building an Atmanirbhar Bharat. The Prime Minister laid down the path of Amrit Kaal, setting the goal of ascending new heights of prosperity while bridging the rural-urban divide and promoting the mantra of less government and more governance. It has been established that the rise of New Bharat can undoubtedly be ensured with the participation, dedication and commitment of every Indian. And Mann Ki Baat will continue to be a driving force in this direction, highlighting the nation's progress through jan bhagidari, thus bringing the nation closer to achieving its goals continually and perpetually instilling the spirit of nationalism and patriotism in India, i.e., Bharat. It will be interesting to see what the centenarian episode of this iconic radio programme, which will be live on April 30, 2023, brings forth.

LEGAL NOTICE

To,

1. Sri. G D R Reddy, Managing Partner

2. Sri. Asher Chandrasekhar Manubhai, S/o Manubhai Asher, Partners of firm by name M/s. Aryavartha Builders and Developers, No.628/2, 2nd Floor, 1st Main, 11th Cross Indiranagar 1st Stage, Bengaluru - 560038.

Sir/s;

Under instructions from my clients Sri. Shiva Kumar S/o Late Munibasappa, Smt. Nagarathnamma W/o Shiva Kumar, Smt. Swathi D/o Shiva Kumar, Smt. Jyothi D/o Shiva Kumar and Sri Harsha S/o Shiva Kumar, all are residents of Prasannahalli Village, Kasaba Hobali, Devanahalli Taluk, Bengaluru Rural District. I issue this notice to you as follows,

1. My clients instruct me to inform you that they are the Absolute Owners of Schedule Property mentioned hereunder. Since my first client was suffering from illness and my third to fifth clients were minors, at that time my clients were unable to lookafter the affairs of schedule property and for the said reason, they had requested one Mr. K. Muniraju S/o Kempanna of Devanahalli to lookafter the schedule property. But both of you by colluding with the said K. Muniraju got created some documents such as GPA and the sale agreement dated 19/04/2007 in respect of schedule property. My clients never intended to execute GPA nor enter into Agreement of sale with you.

2. My clients instruct me to inform you that recently they came to know about GPA and same as been cancelled vide document dated 28/02/2023, registered as No. HSK-4-00806/2022-23 of book-4 stored in CD No. HSKD1784 and same as been published in Indian Express Daily News Paper dated 06/03/2023 and also in Samyukta Karnataka Daily News Paper dated 06/03/2023.

3. My clients instruct me to inform you that the Alleged Agreement of sale dated 19/04/2007 obtained by both of you is sham and bogus document and same is not acted upon. No consideration as passed on to my clients. Since the alleged agreement of sale is registered document it is just and necessary to cancel the same and as such my clients are demanding you to come and execute cancellation of agreement of sale dated 19/04/2007 before sub registrar Devanahalli within 15 days from the date of receipt of this notice or from the date of publication of this notice in Indian Express daily news paper. Hence this notice.

Therefore, My clients instruct me to call upon you to come and Execute cancellation of Agreement of sale dated 19/04/2007 in respect of schedule property, otherwise it is deemed that Alleged Agreement of sale is cancelled forth with and there is no effect of Alleged Agreement of sale dated 19/04/2007 hence forth.

SCHEDULE

Fight against inflation not over : RBI

'Inflation for FY24 projected to soften, but disinflation towards target likely to be slow'

SACHIN KUMAR @ Mumbai

THE possibility of more rate hikes is still alive as the members of the Reserve Bank of India's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) said the fight against inflation is still not over, showed the latest minutes of the MPC meeting.

The impact of monsoon and crude oil prices on inflation weighed on the decision of MPC members to leave repo rate unchanged during the last meeting. All MPC members voted for a pause in rate increase in April 2023 monetary policy.

"Our fight against inflation is far from over and we have to continue with our efforts to bring down inflation closer to the target over the medium term," said RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das said during the last MPC meeting held during April 3-6.

According to the RBI governor, inflation for 2023-24 is projected to soften, but the disinflation towards the target is likely to be slow and protracted. "The projected inflation in Q4:2023-24 at 5.2% would still be well above the target. Therefore, at this juncture, we have to persevere with our focus on bringing about a durable moderation in inflation and at the same time give ourselves some time to monitor the impact of our past actions," he noted.

After raising repo rate by 250 basis points in six back-to-back hikes since May 2022, the central bank decided to leave the repo rate unchanged at 6.5% in its meeting early this month, surprising the market as experts were expecting a 25 basis points hike in the meeting.

It did not change its policy stance and remained focused on the withdrawal of accommodation to ensure that inflation progressively aligns with the target while supporting growth.

Jayanth Varma, one of the members of the MPC, said it would be premature to declare end to the rate-tightening cycle as thewar against inflation has not yet been won.

"It is clear that the war against inflation has not yet been won, and it would be premature to declare an end to this tightening cycle. There is need for heightened vigilance in the face of the fresh risks that I highlighted earlier in my statement," Varma said.

Members were concerned about impact of monsoon on the prices.

"Because of erratic weather and continuing global uncertainties, and until it is clear that inflation is well on the path to reaching the target, it is necessary to emphasise that this may not be the end of the rate hikes," MPC member Ashima Goyal said.

RBI governor to meet directors of banks

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has invited the board of directors of public and private sector banks next month to discuss issues relating to governance and supervision of banks.

The meeting, scheduled on May 22, is first of its kind as the RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das will interact with the top officials of banking sector. "As per the letter from the RBI, the meeting will focus on the issues related to governance, ethics, role of the boards in assurance functionalities of the banks besides highlighting the supervisory expectations," a senior bank official told this newspaper. From RBI's side, deputy governors and executive directors from the Department of Supervision, Department of Regulation and the Enforcement Department will take part in the event. According to the bankers, it is rare for the governor to meet the entire board of banks.

Apple may double or treble investment in India: IT minister

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

APPLE may double or treble its investment in India and exports from the country in next few years, said minister of state for Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY) Rajeev Chandrasekhar after a meeting with Apple CEO Tim Cook. Cook is in India to unveil its first two retail stores in the country.

The minister said he is confident that the Apple-India partnership has a lot of headroom for investments, growth, exports and jobs – doubling and tripling over the coming years.

Cook met Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday and pledged to expand and invest across the county. It is in the process of enhancing its production capacity in India, which is currently about 5-7% of its total production.

The iPhone maker faced several manufacturing issues in China, which still produces 85% of iPhones. These issues include shutdown of plants and tension between the US and Chinese governments.

In India, it has a market share of 3-5% and has three vendors -- Foxconn, Wistron Corp and Pegatron Corp -- to manufacture its products. Last month, Foxconn CEO Young Liu spent a week in India and explored expansion opportunities. As per reports, Foxconn may add two more buildings at its site near Chennai and is looking to establish a research and development centre in Bengaluru's Whitefield.

The firm started manufacturing iPhones in India in 2017, with iPhone SE, now making all the advanced iPhones. Cook on Thursday inaugurated an Apple store in New Delhi, after opening its first outlet in Mumbai. The Apple CEO was welcomed by cheers and claps from staff and Apple enthusiasts who gathered at the store since morning. "What an incredible reception, Delhi, thank you! We're delighted to welcome our customers to our newest store - Apple Saket!," tweeted Cook.

KM Birla back to Vi board as non-executive director

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

TELECOM service provider Vodafone Idea (Vi) on Thursday said it has appointed Kumar Manglam Birla, chief of Aditya Birla Group, as a non-executive director on its board. Birla has made his comeback to the board after two years of his exit.

He had stepped down as the non-executive director in August 2021, when Vi was not doing well. "The board of directors of the company has, at its meeting held today, appointed Kumar Mangalam Birla, as an additional director (non-executive and non-independent) with effect from 20 April 2023," said the company in an exchange filing on Thursday.

The move comes at a time when the company is struggling to raise funds and losing subscribers rapidly to its competitors. The telco is desperately looking to raise funds from the market so that it can invest to improve its infrastructure. Recently, the company announced that Krishna Kumar Maheshwari has resigned as a non-executive director, with effect from April 19, due to "personal reasons". He was a former managing director of UltraTech Cement and representative of Aditya Birla Group on Vi board.

The conglomerate has 18% stake in the loss-making company. Vi has ₹9,600 crore debt repayment due in September 2023. Therefore, it is in talks with key lenders, including SBI, PNB and HDFC Bank for the refinancing plan with easier loan repayment terms.

HCLTech Q4 net profit rises 11% at ₹3,983 crore, revenue increases 18%

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

HCLTECH on Thursday reported a 10.8% jump in its Q4 net profit to ₹3,983 crore compared to ₹3,593 crore in the year-ago period.

However, its net profit was down 2.8% on a sequential basis. Its profit figure beat estimates. The company's revenue stood at Rs 26,606 crore for the quarter ending March 31, 2023, a 17.7% jump compared to ₹ 22,597 crore in the year-ago period.

For FY23, the company's revenue crossed the ₹1,00,000 crore mark. HCLTech Services revenue for the full year was up 15.8% in constant currency. The company's EBIT for FY23 stood at ₹18,483 crore, up 14.1%. The company has won 57 large deals during FY23.

C Vijayakumar, CEO and MD, HCLTech said the growth was across all sectors. "We have crossed an important milestone in our software business - clocked ARR of $1 billion level, which is one of the key measurements for software companies," he said.

He added that there are a lot of dynamics externally. "We have some comfort in our ability to navigate this dynamic market because of the mix of capabilities and expertise that we have in service offerings. These offerings are very relevant when customers want to invest a lot in transformation," he added.

"All these set us well in FY24 for a healthy revenue growth in the 6-8% range with operating margins in the 18-19% range," the CEO added. While there is some stress and uncertainty, it is largely on the discretionary spend side, the company said. In financial services, the company continues to see good opportunities as it witnessed 6.9% growth sequentially in financial services on back of large deal wins.

HCLTech outran its peers TCS and Infosys in Q4 hiring, as it added 3,674 employees in Q4 and overall employee strength is now over 2,25,000. TCS in Q4 added only 821 employees and Infosys headcount in the fourth quarter dropped by 3,611 employees. For FY23, it added 17,067 people and 26,734 freshers. The company's LTM attrition stood at 19.5% in FY23. The Board has announced a dividend of Rs 18 per share for the quarter, taking the total payout to ₹48 per share for the year.

HCL outruns peers in hiring

HCLTech outran its peers TCS and Infosys in Q4 hiring, as it added 3,674 employees in Q4FY23 and overall employee strength is now more than 2,25,000. TCS in fourth quarter added 821 employees and Infosys headcount in the fourth quarter dropped by 3,611 employees.

Banks with exposure to Adanis see m-cap fall

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIAN banks with exposure to the Adani Group were among those that saw the worst declines in their market capitalisation (m-cap) in Q4 FY23, according to an analysis by S&P Global Market Intelligence.

State-owned Punjab National Bank fell two spots to 10th place on the agency's ranking of India's largest banks by m-cap after its market cap plunged 17.45% in the January-March quarter to $6.25 billion (about ₹51,300 crore) , the biggest decline among the top 10 banks.

State Bank of India, the nation's biggest lender by assets, suffered a 14.66% fall, while Hindujau Group's IndusInd Bank followed with a 12.42% slump in its valuation. Among the banks that lost the most market cap in the top 10 were Bank of Baroda and Axis Bank Ltd., with their valuation shrinking falling 9.07% and 8.02%, respectively.

The fallout was triggered by US-based short-seller Hindenburg Research's January 24 report, which alleged that Adani "engaged in a brazen stock manipulation and accounting fraud scheme over the course of decades." Adani Group denied the allegations soon after the Hindenburg report was published. The biggest casualty of the report was Adani Group itself as the combined m-cap of its 10-listed entity fell by over 50% during the quarter. Besides the port-to-power conglomerate, state-run insurer LIC, which owns ₹30,000 crore worth of stakes in different Adani companies, was highly impacted as its shares fell nearly 25% during the quarter.

Following the report, most banks disclosed their exposure to the Group to calm the nerves of investors. While State Bank of India, IndusInd Bank and Axis Bank said their exposures to the group remain below 1% of the total advances, Bank of Baroda said its exposure was at about 25% of the central bank's prescribed limit.

PNB m-cap falls 17%, SBI valuation tumbles 16% in Q4

PNB fell two spots to 10th place on the agency's ranking of India's largest banks by m-cap after its market cap plunged 17.45% in the January-March quarter to $6.25 billion (about ₹51,300 crore) , the biggest decline among the top 10 banks. SBI suffered a 14.66% fall, while IndusInd Bank followed with a 12.42% slump in its valuation

TCS sees opportunities in partnering with Israeli firms

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

TATA CONSULTANCY SERVICES (TCS) is working in Israel's public sector on several key digital transformation initiatives, including Project Nimbus that aims to migrate Israeli ministries and authorities' operations and data to a safe and secure cloud environment.

It said as part of Nimbus, it has been selected by the country's Ministry of Economy, Prime Minister's Office, and Water Authority, among others, to drive their cloud transformations. TCS, which hosted Israel's Minister of Economy and Industry Nir Barkat at its facility in Mumbai, said the meeting centered around strengthening cooperation between Israel's government bodies and TCS. Ananth Krishnan, chief technology officer, TCS, said, "TCS has a strong interest in Israeli technology, innovation, and start-up ecosystem. We see opportunities to partner with Israeli firms and government bodies for mutual benefit."

Present in Israel since 2005, TCS helps some of the biggest organisations in the region. TCS' nearly 1,100 employees based in Petah Tikvah, Jerusalem, and India work with clients in banking and financial services, travel and transport, public services, hi-tech, retail and manufacturing industries. Chen Kamer, CEO, TCS Israel, said, "TCS was one of the first Indian tech firms to establish presence in Israel over 15 years ago. We work with ministries and authorities in Israel, helping them harness power of digital technologies such as cloud, to drive superior outcomes."

Vedanta pledges 2.4% stake in HZL to raise ₹1.5K cr

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

ANIL AGARWAL-led Vedanta has pledged 2.44% of its stake in group company Hindustan Zinc to raise ₹1,500 crore.

With this, 91% of Vedanta's 64.92% stake in Hindustan Zinc (HZL) is now pledged. In another way, 59.31% of Vedanta's 64.92% stake in Hindustan Zinc is now pledged.

Majority of these shares or 56.87% of Vedanta's holding, are pledged with the SBI Trustee Capital.

This latest 2.44% pledge has been created in favour of Axis Trustee Services.

The company said that the borrowed amount would be utilized for general business purposes including repayment of existing debt, capital expenditures and operating expenses.

This latest fundraising via share pledging comes as Vendanta has put focus in reducing its debt.

Vedanta Resources, the parent firm of Vedanta, has debt maturities worth nearly $7 billion lined up for the next few years.

Recently, rating agency Crisil had said that Vedanta Resources has annual debt maturities of about $3 billion each in FY24 and FY25, with high near-term maturities of $1.7 billion in the first quarter of fiscal 2024.

There also reports that Vedanta is in advanced negotiations to raise $1.5-2 billion from US hedge fund Farallon Capital Management.

Vedanta had earlier proposed to sell its global zinc assets to Hindustan Zinc for nearly $3 billion as the Rajasthan-based company has long been a cash cow for the mining giants, squeezing out rich dividends.

However, the Indian government, who owns 30% of Hindustan Zinc, has opposed the move.

Open to CAs from UK, Canada to practice in India: ICAI President

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

IF Chartered Accountants of India get practice rights in the UK and Canada as part of the free trade agreement negotiation, then on reciprocity basis, professional accounting body of India will also support the members of these countries to practice in the country, Aniket Sunil Talati, ICAI President briefing the media said on Thursday. Bar Council of India recently allowed foreign law firms to practice in India.

"On reciprocity basis, if our members get the practice rights in the UK and Canada, then we are happy to welcome them in our shores but it should be on level of equality," Talati said. He further stated that the institute has constituted a group for international networking which is looking into how Indian firms can collaborate with the foreign firms for alliance. He said the Council will take final decision on this after the group submits its report on the possibility of alliance with the other countries.

In addition, Talati also said that the peer review mechanism which is mandatory for the CA firms that audit listed companies will now be extended to all the audit firms with five or more partners from July 1. Peer review is a mechanism through which the third party – external and independent audit professional - examines the documentation and conduct of the audit firm.

He also added that the ICAI's disciplinary committee has never been soft on defaulting members and removed many CAs. He informed that so far, 6,766 cases have been registered under a new disciplinary mechanism since 2007 till March 31, 2023, out of which decision has been taken for 4,249 cases.

Besides this, Talati also said that the quality of audit doesn't depend upon the size of the firm, He stated that it would be injustice for the smaller firms if only large firms would be allowed to conduct the ausit of big companies. The statement is relevant in the context of Adani Group which was blamed by the Hindenberg report for hiring small audit firm Shah Dhandharia, that audits the group.

Nokia's India business jumps four-fold in Q1

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FINNISH telecom gear maker Nokia on Thursday reported a 10% rise in global net sales to 5,859 million euros in the first quarter ending March 2023, on account of nearly four-fold growth in Indian business.

It registered 5,348 million euros in net sales in the same period a year ago. "Network Infrastructure and Mobile Networks grew at double-digit rates, with Network Infrastructure increasing 13%, led by Optical Networks and IP Networks, and Mobile Networks increasing 13%, reflecting continued ramp up of 5G in India," Nokia said in its earnings report. Boost in Indian sales saved it from the reduced spending in North America and other geographies. Nokia India sales rose by over four-fold to 853 million euros during the quarter from 200 million euros in March 2022 quarter on fast pace deployment of 5G network in the country.

Batter's T20 evolution has seen him take down pace but facing spin is an issue

THE TWO KOHLIS

RCB's Virat Kohli hit 59 off 47 balls against PBKS on Thursday | SPORTZPICS

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

VIRAT Kohli and Faf du Plessis is cooking up a formidable partnership at the top for Bangalore. Their inventiveness and ability to attack the first six overs, taking full use of the field restrictions, has helped the franchise to get ahead of the game. That was on show at Mohali on Thursday. By the time the powerplay was done, they had put on an unbroken 59. Both batters were looking to hit pacers, trying to move the game along early doors. At this point, Kohli was 29 off 19 with four fours and looking good for more.

NUMBERS SPEAK

VIRAT KOHLI AGAINST THE TWO PREDOMINANT BOWLING TYPES IN THE SHORTEST FORMAT SINCE 2017

	(IN IPL)		(IN T20IS)
YEAR	SPIN	PACE	SPIN	PACE
2023	103.4	172.7	---	---
2022	108.08	120	124.78	147.46
2021	100	132.19	73.43	156.52
2020	108.91	135.16	119.56	159.48
2019	130.14	146.77	113.82	169.79
2018	115.11	159.61	147.69	106.48
2017	139.7	115.76	153.22	152.23

Kohli's latest evolution to stay relevant in this format has seen him go inside out to pace in the first few overs as well clear the infield on the leg side. That evolution, after a slightly iffy 2022, has brought with it new gifts. He's taking more chances against that bowling type. It's resulting in a scoring rate he has never had before. While the sample size may be small (six games), he's almost scoring 173 runs to every 100 balls.

The evolution, though, has further exaggerated his already below-par numbers against spin. After six matches, he's scoring 103 runs to every balls. Put it this way. If he faced 20 overs of pace, he will make 207. Against spin, it's about 124. What this hides is that he isn't, relatively speaking, bad against spin. He's just adopted a conservative approach where in he's happy to knock the ball for 1s and 2s apart from dotting up. If the first 29 had come in 19 balls, his remaining runs — 30 — had come off 27 balls.

In the four years going back to 2020, the 35-year-old's strike rate against spin is less than 110 but he seldom gets out. In the same time period, spinners dismiss him once every 40 balls or so (13 dismissals in 521 balls). Is it a conscious decision on his part to be conservative against a type of bowling that has caused the former India captain across formats?

Speaking to the host broadcaster after the match, the opener revealed that the plan was to bat deeper to adjust to the conditions. "It (win) does not make us invincible," he said. "In the first half, the conditions changed. After overs 7-8, the ball really started getting scuffed up. We changed our strategy to bat deeper."

That may well have been the case but that doesn't hide the fact it's now a well established trend. Even within the context of this season, Kohli has flitted between Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde depending on the type of bowling he has faced. Worryingly, it may already cost the franchise a few points. Against Lucknow on April 10, on a honeymoon of a pitch for batters, Kohli scored 33 off 19 against the quicks. When the spinners were in operation, he made 28 off 25 (Du Plessis also produced similar numbers from the game). While some of the other Bangalore batters had wiped the floor when the spinners were in operation, Kohli batted for caution. Krunal Pandya, Amit Mishra (who ultimately dismissed Kohli in the game) and Ravi Bishnoi conceded 63 off 35 balls to the other batters for a combined ER of over 11. Again Kohli, the same bowlers had conceded an ER of 6.8 (28 off 25).

Cricketer-turned-TV analyst, Ian Bishop, had flagged this habit of Kohli's last year. This is something we've been seeing with Virat, not just this season," he had mentioned on ESPNCricinfo. "Even last season, I remember, and even sometimes internationally, he'll fly out — he didn't fly out tonight — and then he'll slow down again. So, I'm concerned." He did fly against Punjab but ultimately reverted to type against spin. In a format where every over is 5% of an innings, can Kohli continue to bat in this manner irrespective of his increasing returns against pace? Brief scores: Bangalore 174/4 in 20 ovs (Kohli 59, Du Plessis 84, Brar 2/31) bt Punjab 150 in 18.2 ovs (Prabhsimran 46, Jitesh 41, Siraj 4/21, Wanindu 2/39).

Batting all-rounders getting less bowling with IP rule

GOMESH S @Chennai

WHEN the Impact Player rule was introduced ahead of the 2023 IPL season, among many, there were two key talking points. 1) On how the rule would affect the role of all-rounders and 2) the impact it might have on the way teams strategise and form their playing XIs. While the first issue is a long-term concern and might take time to see how it plays out in teams picking their squad at the auction, there seems to be a clear pattern emerging at this point.

After 26 matches (52 innings), most of the impact player replacements have been the case of a batter coming in for a bowler and vice versa. Very rarely has it been the case where all-rounders have been used as impact players; Venkatesh Iyer, Vijay Shankar, and Rishi Dhawan to name a few. All three of them are medium pacers, but Dhawan has been used only for his bowling while Iyer and Vijay for their batting. Iyer, a regular part-timer option for Kolkata Knight Riders in the past, is yet to bowl this season. It sums up the impact of the new rules. "Honestly, with the coming of the Impact Player rule, the number of overs an all-rounder is bowling has dropped down drastically. Obviously, if a team has a specialist bowler as their sixth bowler and then they don't want to try their all-rounder. It has lessened the utility of all-rounders," Iyer said recently.

For all-rounders whose predominant skill is their bowling like Ravindra Jadeja, Sam Curran, Krunal Pandya, etc, not much has changed. It is those batters who bowl haven't been essentially used as they have been replaced by a front-line bowler. Only twice in the first 26 games, teams have replaced a batter with another batter, one of which was injury-forced with Gujarat Titans replacing Kane Williamson. And so far, only thrice teams have tried not to use the Impact Player rule, once each by the Titans, Royal Challengers Bangalore, and Sunrisers Hyderabad.

Batting all-rounder Venkatesh Iyer (R), who plays for KKR, has not had the chance to roll his arm this season

HOW IMPACT PLAYERS STACK UP SO FAR*

BATTING	BOWLING
INNINGS 48	INNINGS 45
RUNS 1381	OVERS 146.2
BALLS 1026	WICKETS 40
AVG STRIKE RATE 134.6	AVG ECO 9.7
CUMULATIVE AVG 28.77	AVG SR 21.95

*Till the match (No 26) between RR and LSG

What kind of impact do the players who come in have had? Some, like Suyash Sharma, Amit Mishra, Iyer, and Dhruv Jurel have scored points with their performances. However, it is not the same across all teams. On average, batters who come in as impact players in the first 26 games have struck at 134.6 strike rate, averaging 28.77. Bowlers have operated at an average economy of 9.7 with a strike rate of 21.95. If one goes through the data, it seems like spinners have done better than pacers on average, especially while defending totals.

Similarly, different teams have gone about it in different ways. Chennai Super Kings, for example, have fixed Ambati Rayudu as their impact player with the bat and change the bowler depending on conditions. Sunrisers Hyderabad, on the other hand, have had their share of challenges in figuring out how to make the most of the rule. "It always seems to be a bit of a tricky one," said SRH skipper Aiden Markram on the eve of their clash against CSK in Chennai. "You are probably making a call based on conditions on the night. I've always liked consistency among selections. I think it gives players good clarity and good role definition, but the impact player can sometimes not allow for that continuity, but we try our best to make sure that at least everyone is clear in what their role is," he added.

Like everything that has happened in the IPL, the impact player rule, too, is likely to evolve and be made better use of should it be persisted.

TODAY'S MATCH

CSK look to take home advantage

As Sunrisers Hyderabad take on Chennai Super Kings at MA Chidambaram Stadium on Friday, a look...

BROOK VS THEEKSHANA

Harry Brook smashed a century but hasn't done much since. In Chennai, he will be challenged by Maheesh Theekshana in the powerplay. After all, the England batter averages 27.5 against spin in the first six overs. Who comes out on top will make for an interesting contest.

HOMECOMING FOR TN DUO

Washington Sundar and T Natarajan are a prominent part of the Sunrisers bowling attack and they will be returning to their home ground on Friday. While Washington has had decent outings, despite being the pacer to nail the yorkers with accuracy has gone for runs and would hope to rectify that.

WILL STOKES PLAY?

Ben Stokes has been batting in the nets since Wednesday and was one of the few to practice in the centre-wicket on the eve of the match. While it is yet to be seen if CSK field him for fitness and strategy reasons, one cannot rule out the English all-rounder's name in the team sheet on Friday.

Confident Chennai face Hyderabad test at home

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

THERE was a time when south zone matches used to be electric affairs. The Tamil Nadu versus Hyderabad games used to be an exciting with the likes of K Srikkanth and Co. locking horns with the likes of Mohammad Azharuddin and his colleagues.

The Chennai game on Friday against Hyderabad promises to be an electrifying one as both teams have some attacking batters in their ranks. CSK will carry the confidence of a creditable win that they had against RCB, while Hyderabad will look to recover from the loss at the hands of Mumbai Indians.

CSK will once again look up to Ruturaj Gaikwad and Devon Conway to give a good start and look for the likes of Shivam Dube and Moeen Ali to consolidate without compromising on the Run Rate.

CSK also have a lot of batting depth with their skipper MS Dhoni coming at No 8.

Spin in the offing

Most of the teams that have played at Chennai have used three spinners. Hyderabad already have two quality spinners in Washington Sundar and Mayank Markande. So keeping in tune with the surface, they may be tempted to include Adil Rashid or Akeal Hosein. "I am not 100 per cent sure what the combination would be like. We will have a look at the pitch and then decide the combination," said Aiden Markram, captain of Hyderabad.

In contrast, CSK have lot of variety in their attack. Ravindra Jadeja, Moeen Ali and Maheesh Theeskahan are, you would think, automatic starters at home. So the question in the minds of fans is whether Hyderabad batters will measure up to CSK spinners. Plus the visitors' middle-order has not clicked as a unit. "Hopefully yes (Our batters handle CSK spinners) . We have to appreciate that they (CSK) have really good spinners and the conditions are conducive for spinners," said Markram. SRH will look for Harry Brook and Mayank Agarwal to exploit the powerplay.

> We have to appreciate that they (CSK) have really good spinners and the conditions are conducive for spinners.
> Aiden Markram, Sunrisers Hyderabad captain

CSK will, in all probability, target T Natarajan and Washington who are familiar with the conditions and wicket at Chepauk. Both were expensive by their standards against Mumbai in their previous game.

"Sometimes you can make as many plans you want to but on the day, you have to react. We have a saying that conditions overwrite planning, we can make our plans but it's important to react on the day," said Simons. With Ben Stokes having a fruitful net session, there could be changes in the CSK line-up. It will be interesting to see who gives way for him.

First win for Delhi Capitals

ENS @New Delhi

DELHI Capitals' collective bowling effort and a half-century by skipper David Warner helped the side post their first win of the season.

Up against Kolkata Knight Rider at home on Thursday, Delhi won the toss and put the visitors to bat. The Delhi bowlers, led by veteran Ishant Sharma, kept it nice and tidy to pick up wickets on regular intervals.

As many as four bowlers, including Ishant, picked up two wickets apiece to restrict KKR to 127. Jason Roy (43) hung around for some time but couldn't find support. In reply, Warner played with lot of intent to lay a solid platform for the team. In the end, Delhi batters survived some close calls before reaching the victory margin.

Brief Scores: KKR 127 in 20 ovs (Roy 43, Russell 38 n.o; Axar 2/13) lost to DC 128/6 in 19.2 ovs (Warner 57, Pandey 21).

Haaland on target again as Man City book Real Madrid semis clash

AGENCIE @Munich

MANCHESTER City will face Real Madrid in the Champions League semi-finals for the second straight season after Erling Haaland scored in a 1-1 draw which secured a 4-1 aggregate last-eight win over Bayern Munich on Wednesday.

The Norwegian missed a first-half penalty but muscled his way upfield midway through the second half, lashing past Bayern goalkeeper Yann Sommer for his 48th goal in 41 appearances this season.

Bayern scored a late penalty through Joshua Kimmich but were again haunted by their inability to make possession and chances count.

City will play in the semis for the third straight year but face a rematch with manager Pep Guardiola's old foe Real, who scored two late goals to spectacularly turn the tie their way on the way to eventually winning the title last season.

"The semi-final again... the experience that we have in the competition, the players feel it a lot, they want to do really well," Guardiola told BT Sport. Bayern sacked previous coach Julian Nagelsmann in favour of Thomas Tuchel earlier this month despite a perfect record in the Champions League this season but have since been eliminated from Europe and the German Cup.

"If we can't take positives from this match, we would have a problem," Tuchel, whose side are only two points clear of Borussia Dortmund in the Bundesliga title race, told DAZN. "At the moment, City are in the best shape, with the best players in the best league in the world." Guardiola, so often criticised in the Champions League for tinkering with his side, named the same XI that won the first leg 3-0 in Manchester. Tuchel made two changes, opting for the creativity of City loanee Joao Cancelo at full-back and bringing back Eric Maxim Choupo-Moting, the only recognised striker in the squad.

Bayern's fast start in vain

Bayern, hoping to replicate previous miracle Champions League comebacks which started with an early goal, went on the attack from the outset. Bayern's other former City star, Leroy Sane, chipped just wide on 17 minutes when through one-on-one with goalkeeper Ederson. The six-time European champions received a massive let-off just a minute later in one of City's first attacks thanks to a narrow offside call against Haaland.

Results: Q/Fs (2nd legs): Inter Milan 3-3 Benfica (Inter Milan win 5-3 on aggregate); Bayern Munich 1-1 Man City (Man City win 4-1 on aggregate).

Inter set up all-Italian clash

MILAN: Inter Milan set up a blockbuster derby in the Champions League semifinals after a 3-3 draw with Benfica saw the Italians through 5-3 on aggregate. Simone Inzaghi's side will face local rivals AC Milan in the last four thanks to goals from Nicolo Barella, Lautaro Martinez and Joaquin Correa which ensured straight-forward qualification.

Both Milan giants are trying to become the first Serie A side to win Europe's top club competition since 2010. "It was a big night for everyone at the club, and we deserved to go through over the course of the two legs," said Inzaghi.

SPACEX'S STARSHIP BLOWS UP AFTER LAUNCH

Several of its engines failed to ignite, booster too did not separate from the spacecraft

SPACE

STARBASE: SpaceX's Starship, the most powerful rocket ever built, exploded on Thursday during the first test flight of the spacecraft designed to send astronauts to the Moon, Mars and beyond.

The gigantic rocket successfully blasted off at 8:33 am Central Time from Starbase, the private SpaceX spaceport in Boca Chica, Texas.

Images showed several of the 33 main engines were not firing as the rocket climbed from the launch pad, reaching as high as 39 km. There was no immediate word from SpaceX on how many engines failed to ignite or shut down prematurely. The booster was supposed to peel away from the spacecraft three minutes after liftoff, but that didn't happen. The rocket with the spacecraft still attached began to tumble and then exploded, plummeting into the gulf.

Once flying free, the spacecraft was meant to lap around the world, ending with a crash-landing in the Pacific near Hawaii. Instead of a best-case-scenario 1 1/2-hour flight, it lasted four minutes.

Despite the failure to complete the full flight test, SpaceX declared it a success. "We cleared the tower which was our only hope," said Kate Tice, a SpaceX quality systems engineer. "With a test like this, success comes from what we learn, and today's test will help us improve Starship's reliability as SpaceX seeks to make life multi-planetary," SpaceX tweeted.

NASA has picked the Starship spacecraft to ferry astronauts to the Moon in late 2025 for the first time since the Apollo programme ended in 1972.

Starship consists of a 50-metre tall spacecraft designed to carry crew and cargo that sits atop a 230-foot tall first-stage Super Heavy booster rocket.

SpaceX conducted a successful test-firing of the 33 massive Raptor engines on the first-stage booster in February but the Starship spacecraft and the Super Heavy rocket were being flown together for the first time. The integrated test flight was intended to assess their performance in combination.

Study finds mind-body connection built into brain

HEALTH

NEW DELHI: A new study has provided evidence representing literal linkage of body and mind in the very structure of the brain. The study, which showed parts of the brain area controlling movement being plugged into networks involved in cognition, could help explain confounding behaviours such as resorting to pacing when feeling anxious and why people who exercise regularly report a more positive outlook on life.

These parts of the brain area were also found to control involuntary bodily functions such as blood pressure and heartbeat. These practices, while having been found useful such as in people with anxiety, have not been scientifically proved. 2 assistant professors of neurology— Evan M. Gordon, and Nico Dosenbach, had set out to verify the map of the areas of the brain that control movement, using modern brain-imaging techniques.

The research team built a high-density dataset by recruiting seven healthy adults to undergo hours of fMRI brain scanning while resting or performing tasks. They then built individualized brain maps for each participant.

Then, they validated their results using three large, publicly available fMRI datasets—the Human Connectome Project, the Adolescent Brain Cognitive Development Study and the UK Biobank—which together contained brain scans from about 50,000 people.

85 die in crush as Yemenis gather to collect handout

Huge crowd thronged a school premises to collect Ramzan gifts; 322 others injured

SANAA

AT least 85 people were killed and hundreds injured in a crush at a Ramzan cash handout in Yemen early on Thursday, as the impoverished country suffered one of its worst tragedies just as optimism was growing over its bitter civil war.

Three people were detained over the stampede in Sanaa, the rebel-held capital, after big crowds gathered at a school to receive gifts of 5,000 rial (about $8)—enough for a large family meal—for the end of Ramzan, the Muslim holy month.

Harrowing footage screened by the Iran-backed Huthi rebels' Al Masirah TV showed a tightly packed crowd screaming and shoving, unable to move, while others attempted to haul stricken people out of the crush. Other shots showed dead bodies on the ground as the panic continued. Afterwards, piles of abandoned sandals, clothing and a crutch littered the scene, while an investigator in white protective gear collected evidence.

"It was a huge crowd. They fell on me, and I got hurt," an injured child told Al Masirah from his hospital bed.

A Huthi security official speaking on condition of anonymity told AFP that at least 85 people were killed and "more than 322" injured, 50 of them seriously. "Women and children were among the dead," the official said. A health official confirmed the toll.

The tragedy comes just ahead of Eid al-Fitr, a major Muslim festival, and punctures a buoyant mood over the war in the Arabian Peninsula's poorest country, following peace talks and an exchange of nearly 1,000 prisoners last week.

The head of the Huthis' Supreme Revolutionary Committee, Mohamed Ali al-Huthi, blamed "overcrowding," saying people were packed in a narrow street leading to the school's back entrance. Once the gates opened, the crowd streamed into a tight staircase leading to the courtyard where the distribution was taking place.

Hours after the chaos, tattered clothing and footwear were still strewn around the scene, and a stone stairway was spattered with blood.

"There were many people who came to receive charity money, and I was among them," Ola Saeed, 28, told AFP.

Missing Indian climber found alive in Nepal's Mt Annapurna

KATHMANDU

INDIAN climber Anurag Maloo, who went missing on Monday after falling into a deep crevasse on Nepal's Mount Annapurna, has been found alive in critical condition by rescuers, his brother and organisers said on Thursday.

Anurag, 34, a resident of Kishangarh in Rajasthan, went missing on Monday after he fell from around 6,000 metres while descending from Camp III. Mount Annapurna is the 10th highest mountain.

A team of rescuers located the Indian climber in a deep crevasse between Camp III and Camp II of the world's tenth highest peak, said Thaneshwor Guragain, information officer at Seven Summit Treks—the organiser of the expedition.

Anurag Maloo | PTI

He has been airlifted to Kathmandu and admitted to Medicity Hospital at Bhaisepati area of Lalitpur district, Guragain said. Anurag is still unconscious and his condition is very critical, Guragain told PTI over phone. "He is found alive. He has been taken to the hospital in critical condition, but he is still alive," Sudhir Maloo, his brother, said. The rescue team that went looking for him in the crevasse he had fallen into has found and rescued him, according to Sudhir.

A helicopter and a team of six Sherpa climbers led by Chhang Dawa Sherpa had been mobilised for the search and Anurag was found in a deep crevasse at some 5,800 metres altitude on Thursday morning. He was first taken to the Manipal Hospital in Pokhara and then flown to Kathmandu for further treatment. PTI

Sudan deaths mount as army chief rules out negotiations to end fighting

KHARTOUM

SUDAN'S army ruled out negotiations with a rival paramilitary force on Thursday, saying it would only accept its surrender as the two sides continued to battle in central Khartoum and other parts of the country, threatening to wreck the latest attempt at a ceasefire.

The military's statement raised the likelihood of a renewed surge in the nearly week-long violence that has pushed Sudan's population to the breaking point. Alarm has grown that the country's medical system was on the verge of collapse, with many hospitals forced to shut down and others running out of supplies.

At least 330 people have been killed and 3,300 wounded in the fighting since it began Saturday, the UN's World Health Organization said, but the toll is likely higher because many bodies lie uncollected.

The 24-hour cease-fire, declared on Wednesday evening, had brought only marginal calm to parts of Khartoum, but many residents took advantage to flee the homes where they have been trapped for days. "Massive numbers" of people, mostly women and children, were leaving in search of safer areas, said Atiya Abdulla Atiya, secretary of the Doctors' Syndicate.

Hours before the truce was set to end, the military said in a statement that it would not negotiate with its rival, the Rapid Support Forces (RSF), over an end to the crisis and would only discuss terms of its surrender. "There would be no armed forces outside (of) the military system," it said.

Meanwhile, the Egyptian and Sudanese militaries said that Egypt succeeded in repatriating dozens of its military personnel who had been detained by the RSF when it attacked Merowe airport, early in the fighting. Egypt said its personnel were there for joint exercises.

Sudan's fighting has also caused up to 20,000 Sudanese to seek refuge in eastern Chad, the UN said on Thursday.

At least 320 Sudanese soldiers fled to Chad, where they were disarmed, said Daoud Yaya Brahim, Chad's defence minister.

The troops were apparently fleeing from Darfur, where the RSF is the most powerful armed force. AP

2	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		Ravishankar .D is a well-known social activist worker. He is always available and approachable for the people of his Constituency. The Party workers of assembly constituency wish that he should be their voice in Vidhan Sabha. Because of all these factors, the Congress party has considered him fit to be a candidate for this assembly constituency.
3	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (Not more than 100 words)		All the cases pending against him are still at the initial stages. He has been falsely implicated in these cases by the ruling party because of his popularity. Considering his deep involvement with local population and dedication especially towards weaker sections of the society, the INC has chosen him from this constituency
